Private collection of Mrs. Rooslila A. Tahir

Rooslila A. Tahir

Rooslila A Tahir, wife of General Achmad Tahir, an art collector who was born in Aceh, Indonesia, had various talents and interests. In addition to her soprano singing skills, she was a secretary during the Japanese occupation. After moving to Jakarta in the 1950s, she became passionate about art, frequently buying pieces on credit from artists she admired or befriended. Close to Fatmawati, President Soekarno's wife, Tahir's refined taste in art was influenced by her. President Soekarno, a prominent art collector, likely influenced Tahir's artistic preferences as she explored and learned about art from Soekarno and Fatmawati.

Notably, she built friendships with prominent figures in the Indonesian art scene, including S. Sudjojono who was amongst the first artists she met, and Abdul Aziz, whom she met while residing in Italy in the 1950s. She also visited other artists such as Sudarso and Dullah. As a trusted painter, Sudarso also served as her art advisor. Despite extensive travels and residences in global cultural hubs like New York and Paris, Tahir exclusively collected works by Indonesian artists, particularly focusing on pieces reflecting Indonesia's artistic evolution since its independence in 1945.

Collecting various art works from Indonesian artists stands as a testament to Rooslila A. Tahir's lifelong dedication and passion for the arts, infused with a deep sense of nationalism tied to Indonesia's post-1945 independence. This collection represents one of the most significant gatherings of Indonesian paintings amassed by private collectors, showcasing exemplary pieces by renowned artists such as Sudjojono, Affandi, Man Fong, Dullah, and Abdul Aziz.

Handrio

Handrio was born in 1926 in Purwakarta. He started his painting career by studying with Basuki Abdullah. Furthermore, during the Japanese period, he studied with Sudjojono and Agus Djaja at Keimin Bunka Shidoso and Poetera in Jakarta. At first, Handrio's paintings were in the style of realism and Surrealism. In the 1950s Handrio has shifted to a semi-abstract style, which is analytically HANDRIO breaking down shapes in the geometric plane. This style was a different expression from the Yogyakarta painters at that time who generally painted populist themes from realism to expressionism and decorative styles. In this semi-abstract style, he analyzes many forms of still life objects and musical instruments. In its development in the late 1960s, these forms disappeared into dynamic and complex geometric spaces. The peak of Handrio's abstract style achievement occurred in the 1980s. The space, field, and color in his paintings represent the characterization of the construction of the elements themselves. In this expression, what is present is dynamics, rhythm, complexity, robustness, balance, or other images
