1. BEFORE THE AUCTION

Pre-sale Estimates
The pre-sale estimates are intended as a guide for prospective buyers. Any bid between the high and the low pre-sale estimates would, in our opinion, offer a fair chance of success. The reserve is the minimum price the seller is willing to accept below which the lot will not be sold.

Condition of Lots
Prospective buyers are encouraged to inspect the property at the pre-sale exhibition. Solely as a convenience, Larasati may provide condition reports. The absence of reference to the condition of a lot in the catalog description does not imply that the lot is free from faults or imperfections.

An American Artist in Bali

Bali marked the turning point in Hirschfeld's career when, in1932, he followed the steps of Miguel Coarrubias. A letter from Covarrubias- then living in Bali- prompted Hirschfeld to pack up his pen and paints and catch the next ship for the island of Bali in the Dutch East Indies (now Indonesia).

But by the time Hirschfeld arrived in Denpasar, Covarrubias and his wife already left. However, he rented the house in which they had been livign and inherited Covarrubias's bicycle and domestic staff. For the next eleven months, Hirscfield explored Bali on foot and on they trusty bike. In "The World of Hirschfeld" published in 1981, Hirschfeld described his Balinese sojourn as follows:
"By the time I reached the village of Den Pasar I knew that my life would never again be the same. The Balinese sun seemed to bleach out all color, leaving everything in pure line. The people became line drawings walking around. It was in Bali that my attraction blossomed into an enduring love affair with line."

Hirschfeld has numerous impotant exhibitions in the US. He is represented in the collections of the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Museum of Modern Art in New York City.

Léa LAFUGIE (French, 1890-1972)

During that early time of the 20th century,the French artist Lea Lafugie never stopped to travel and paint in Middle-East and Asia during more that 30 years, lead only by the power of her artistic skill, her intrepidity and above all her enormous adventure desire.

She visited, painted and exhibited in Indonesia during the year 1930.

After four months in France she left for Singapore in September 1930 and after a short stay, traveled to the Dutch East Indies (now Indonesia).

A series of portraits done in central Java shows that she was well entertained at the Sultan's Palace during her visit to Solo. To travel freely in the Dutch colony some authorisations were required and through the kindness of the Netherland Indies Governor in Buitenzorg (now Bogor), in west Java, she had the opportunity to travel among Dayaks, active "head hunting" tribes, living in Borneo (now Kalimantan). Following on from this valuable authorisation, the Governor of Borneo informed the Resident of Samarinda that Lafugie would be their guest aboard the small steamboat "Mahakam" which was actually the only means of access to the remote interior Dayak villages.

From Surabaya, she left for Borneo on the Dutch cargo ship "Swool". After a stop over in Banjarmasin and Balikpapan she arrived in Samarinda and at the end of October she embarked for a journey of several weeks on the Mahakam River. The crew of her small vessel were eight sailors and a cook under the authority of a Malaysian captain and they were completed by the presence of two Javanese police officers in charge of delivering government missives and some vital medicines to the remote villages. During the first riverside stop in Tenggarong, the capital of the small semi-independent Muslim state of Kutai, Lafugie was received at the palace. The next day, majestically sitting on his throne and dressed in his stately dress adorned with precious stones, the Sultan was glad to pose for the artist.

Léa and the crew carried on their trip under the impressive vault of the towering equatorial forest. Without any entertainment-unless wild animals, reptiles, mosquitos and other insects counted as such-time passed very slowly until the first Dayak village was reached. There she was welcomed by the chief and several tattooed warriors. Further on, the boat came to the village of Tering where she was invited to attend traditional dances after walking a strenuous few kilometres and then continuing by canoe through the deep jungle. For her it was a tough ordeal however she spent a wonderful time with the Dayaks sharing their hunting, their meals and their celebrations. However at the end she was happy to return to the more comfortable small steamer that reached the final navigable section of the river at Long Iram.

Back in Samarinda after this journey of more than 1200 kilometres, she sailed aboard the Dutch vessel "Merel" for Makassar, the capital of the Celebes (now Sulawesi) where she continued to produce new paintings.

Thereafter, she went to spend two unforgettable months on the island of Bali where foreign tourism had just started with the inauguration of the first tourist class hotel in Denpasar in 1928. Later some of her works done in Indonesia would be used to illustrate several lavish Dutch tourist publications.

Back in Java, she was welcomed by the intellectual Dutch authorities and was invited to hold two solo exhibitions. The first was held in Batavia (now Jakarta) in December 1930 at the Kunstkringhuis-the Dutch Cultural Centre, a splendid Art Nouveau building inaugurated in 1914, and the second at the Kunstkring in Surabaya early January 1931 where she also gave a seminar in French (at that time members of high Dutch Society were all Francophone).

Her time in Indonesia and the work she completed there resulted in a new Lafugie exhibition being held at the Singapore Memorial Hall beginning on the 31st January 1931. At the time, the Straits Times newspaper published the article: "Adventurous Artist now in Singapore" announcing this exhibition of work painted in Indonesia.

....In March 1935 she visited Malacca in Malaysia and from the 9th till 12th April, she exhibited about 100 paintings in the grand hall of the Young Women's Christian Association at Collyer Quay in Singapore.

At the inauguration performed by the French Consul, Monsieur Ballereau, a journalist of the "Free Press" noted the elegance of Léa Lafugie. Wearing a large hat, she was dressed in style with a yellow silk trouser suit that matched well with a brown-yellow coat. All European Consuls where present at this event and among important personalities he noted the aristocratic Belgian artist Adrien Jean le Mayeur de Merprès (1880-1958) who, already famous in Bali where he had lived since 1932, had exhibited four times at the Y.W.C.A. since February 1933.

Conditions of Business For Buyers

We hereby inform all those participating in the auction, that it shall be held subject to the following conditions and that anyone taking part in it, hereby accepts these conditions as applicable.

Larasati as agent

As auctioneer, PT. Balai Lelang Larasati here-in referred to as Larasati acts as agent for the Seller. Unless otherwise agreed, sales of goods at this auction result in contracts made between the seller, through our agency, with the buyer.

Definitions of terms used in these conditions

In the conditions set out below, some terms are used regularly that need explanation. They are as follows:

- the "Buyer" means the person with highest bid accepted by the auctioneer;
- a "Lot" means any item deposited with us for sale at auction and, in particular, the item or items described against any lot number in any catalog;
- the "Hammer Price" means the charge payable by the auctioneer in relation to a lot;
- the "Buyer's Premium" means the charge payable by the buyer as a percentage of the hammer price;
- the "Reserve" means the amount below which we agree with the Seller that the lot cannot be sold;
- "Forgery" means a lot constituting an imitation originally conceived and executed as a whole with a fraudulent intention to deceive as to authorship, origin, age, period, culture or source where the correct description as to such matters is not reflected by the description in the catalog and which at the date of the auction had a value materially less than it would have had if it had been in accordance with the description in the catalog. Accordingly, no lot shall be capable of being a forgery by reason of any damage and/or restoration work of any kind (including repainting);
- the "Insured Value" means the amount that Larasati in its absolute discretion from time to time shall consider to be the value for which a lot should be covered by insurance (whether or not insurance is arranged by us).

BEFORE THE SALE

Examination of goods

Prospective buyers are strongly advised to examine personally any goods in which they are interested, before the auction takes place. Condition reports are usually available on request.

Larasati is not responsible for any faults or defects in any lot or the correctness of:

- any statement as to the authorship;
- origin;
- date and age of the lot;
- attribution;
- genuineness;
- provenance and conditions of any lot.

Larasati does not make or give, nor has any person in the employment of Larasati any authority to make or give, any representation or warranty regarding the authorship, origin, date, age, size, medium, attribution, genuiness, description, provenance, condition or estimate selling price of any lot.

Catalog descriptions

Statements by us in the catalog or condition report, or made orally or in writing elsewhere, regarding the authorship, origin, date, age, size, medium, attribution, genuineness, provenance, condition or estimate selling price of any lot are merely statements of opinion given in good faith, and are not to be relied on as statements of definitive fact. Catalog illustrations are for guidance only, and should not be relied on either to determine the tone or colour of any item or to reveal imperfections. Estimates of the selling price should not be relied on as a statement that this price is either the price at which the lot will sell or its value for any other purpose.

Many items are of an age or nature which precludes their being in perfect condition and some descriptions in the catalog or given by way of condition report make reference to damage and/or restoration. We provide this information for guidance only and the absence of such reference does not imply that an item is free from defects or restoration nor does the reference to particular defects imply the absence of any others.

Buyers Responsibility

Buyers are responsible for satisfying themselves concerning the condition of the goods and the matters referred to in the catalog description.

AT THE SALE

Refusal of admission

Our sale takes place on our own premises or premises over which we have control for the sale, and we have the right, exercisable at our complete discretion, to refuse admission to the premises or attendance at the auction.

Registration before bidding

Every prospective buyer must complete and sign a registration form and provide identification before making a bid at auction. Prospective buyers should be aware that we usually require buyers to undergo a credit check.

Bidding as Principal

When making a bid, prospective buyer will be accepting personal liability, unless it has been agreed in writing, at the time of registration, that a bidder is acting as agent on behalf of a third party acceptable to us.

Commission Bids

If a prospective buyer gives us instructions to bid on his behalf, by using the form printed after the catalog entries, we shall use reasonable efforts to do so, provided these instructions are received not later than 24 hours before the sale. Bids should be placed in Indonesian Rupiahs. Bids placed in other currencies will be converted to Indonesian Rupiahs using the one month forward rate of exchange quoted to us by CIMB Niaga Bank at opening on the date of the auction and the Indonesian Rupiahs figure may be subject to rounding. The buyer's invoice will be in Indonesian Rupiahs and we shall not be liable to the buyer for any loss suffered as a result of exchange rate movements after the date of the sale. If we receive commission bids on a particular lot for identical amounts, and at auction these bids are the highest bids for the lot, it will be sold to the person whose bid was received first. Commission bids are undertaken subject to other commitments at the time of the sale, and the conduct of the sale may be such that we are unable to bid as requested. Since this is undertaken as a free service to prospective buyers on the terms stated, we cannot accept liability for failure to make a commission bid. Prospective buyers should therefore always attend personally if they wish to be certain of bidding.

Telephone Bids

If prospective buyers make arrangements with us not less than 24 hours before the sale, we shall use reasonable efforts to contact the bidders to enable them to participate in bidding by telephone, but under no circumstances will we be liable to either the seller or any prospective buyer as a result of failure to do so.

Bidding by Internet LIVE Auctions

For LIVE Auctions, the Company does not provide in-house real-time bidding service. However, bids may be placed through the Internet Bid System provided by INVALUABLE/LiveAuctioneers (hereinafter referred to as the "Real-Time Internet Bidding"). Any person who intends to participate must register through INVALUABLE/LiveAuctioneers as the appointed third party company for Real-Time Internet Bidding and is bound to the INVALUABLE's/LiveAuctioneers's Terms and Conditions of the sale, including additional 5% surcharge of the hammer price and 22% buyer's premium.

Currency Converter

At this auction, a currency converter may be operated, based on the one month forward rates of exchange quoted to us by CIMB Niaga Bank at opening on the date of the auction. Bidding will however take place in Indonesian Rupiahs. The currency converter is not always reliable, and errors may occur beyond our control either in the accuracy of the lot number displayed on the converter, or the foreign currency equivalent of Indonesian Rupiahs bids.

We shall not be liable to the buyer for any loss suffered as a result of the buyer following the currency converter, rather than the Indonesian Rupiahs bidding.

Video images

At this auction there will be a video screen. Mistakes may occur in its operation, and we cannot be liable to the buyer regarding either the correspondence of the image to the lot being sold or the quality of the image as a reproduction of the original.

The auctioneer's discretion

The auctioneer has the right at his absolute discretion to refuse any bid, to advance the bidding in such manner as he may decide, to withdraw or divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots and, in the case of error or dispute, to put an item up for bidding again.

Successful bid

Subject to the auctioneer's discretion, the striking of his hammer marks the acceptance of the highest bid and the conclusion of a contract for sale between the seller and the buyer.

AFTER THE SALE

Buyer's Premium

In addition to the hammer price, the buyer must pay us the buyer's premium at a rate of 22% of the hammer price of the lot and transport/ shipping charges.

Payment

Following the sale, the buyer must provide us with his or her name and permanent address and, if so requested, details of the bank from which payment will be made and then pay the full amount due (comprising the hammer price and the buyer's premium) within seven days after the date of the sale.

The buyer will not acquire title to the lot until all amounts due to us have been paid to us, even in circumstances where we have released the lot to the buyer.

Collection of Purchases

Unless we specifically agree to the contrary, we shall retain items sold until all amounts due to us, or to Larasati or to any of its other subsidiaries, have been paid in full. Items retained will be covered by our insurance from the date of the sale for a period of seven days or, if by then the goods have been collected, to the time of collection. After seven days or from the time of collection, whichever is the earlier, the lot will be entirely at the buyer's risk.

Packing and handling

We shall use all reasonable efforts to take care when handling and packing a purchased lot but remind the buyer that after seven days or from the time of collection, the lot is entirely at the buyer's risk.

Remedies for non-payment or failure to collect purchases

If the buyer fails to make payment within seven days, we shall be entitled to exercise one or more of the following rights or remedies:

- to charge interest at a rate per annum not exceeding CIMB Niaga Bank base rate plus 4 per cent on the full amount due to the extent it remains unpaid for more than seven days after the date of the sale;
- to exercise a lien on any of the buyer's property which may be in our possession for any purpose and, following 14 days' notice to the buyer of the amount outstanding and remaining unpaid, arrange the sale of such property and apply the proceeds in discharge of the amount outstanding to us;
- where several amounts are owed by the buyer to us, or to Larasati, or to any of its other subsidiaries, in respect of different transactions, to apply any amount paid to discharge any amount owed in respect of any particular transaction whether or not the buyer so directs;
- to reject at any future auction any bids made by the buyer or on his behalf or obtain a deposit from the buyer before accepting any bids;

If the buyer fails to make payment within 45 working days, we shall in addition be entitled to exercise any one or more of the following remedies:

- to issue proceedings on behalf of the seller against the buyer to recover the full amount due, together with the costs of such proceedings on a full indemnity basis and with interest, charged at 4% per annum above CIMB Niaga Bank base rate;
- to cancel the sale of the lot or any other item sold to the buyer at the same auction;
- to arrange a resale of the lot publicly or privately, and, if this results in a lower price being obtained, claim the balance from the buyer together with any costs incurred in connection with the buyer's failure to make payment.

Failure to collect

Where purchases are not collected within seven days after the sale, whether or not payment has been made, we shall arrange storage at the buyer's expense, and only release the items purchased after payment has been made in full of storage, removal, insurance and any other costs incurred, together with payment of all other amounts due to us.

Guide for Absentee Bidders

Absentee Bids
If you are unable to attend the auction in person, and wish to place bids, you may give Larasati Bid Department instructions to bid on your behalf. We will then try to purchase the lot or lots of your choice for the lowest price possible, and never for more than the top amount you indicate. This service is free and confidential. Please note : Larasati offers this service as a convenience to clients who are unable to attend the sale, and although we will make every effort, Larasati will not be responsible for error or failure to execute bids. Absentee bids, when placed by telephone, are accepted only at the caller's risk and must be confirmed by letter.

Email: info@larasati.com.

Using the Absentee Bid Form
Please use the absentee bid form provided and be sure to record accurately the lot numbers and descriptions and the top hammer price you are willing to pay for each lot. "Buy" or unlimited bids will not be accepted. Bids must be placed in the same order as the lot numbers appear in the catalog.

Please place your bids as early as possible. In the event of identical bids, the earliest received will take precedence. Where appropriate your bids will be rounded down to the nearest amount consistent with the Auctioneer's bidding increments.

Successful Bids
A successful bidder will receive an invoice detailing his or her purchases and giving instructions for payment and clearance of goods. Unsuccessful absentee bidders will be advised.
