OUR TEAM

Benny Oenardi Raharjo
Founder and President Director, Global Auction

From his early age to the present day, Benny has always been keen on art of various forms, from visual art to performance art. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Architecture from UNTAR, which eventually led to a career in interior design, and a MBA Degree from National University, San Diego, CA. Initially, he started an auction house because he was inspired to bring the works of Indonesian masters that were often auctioned abroad, back to the collectors and art lovers in Indonesia. However, over time, he realized that art transcends language and nationality. As the Founder and President Director of Global Auction for more than 20 years, Benny still leads this company with his experience and expertise in the global art market and auction house.

Kevin Oenardi Raharjo
Director, Global Auction

Kevin holds a Bachelor's Degree in Marketing, Logistics and Business Administration from The Ohio State University, Columbus, OH. Following his father's footsteps, Kevin has also studied fine arts globally, and amassed global art experiences since his childhood. As one of the Directors of Global Auction, Kevin is one of our specialists in the Modern and Contemporary Art division that oversees research, curation, marketing, strategy, and client relations.

Randy Oenardi Raharjo
Director, Global Auction

Randy holds a Bachelor's Degree in Finance and Business Administration from The Ohio State University, Columbus, OH. Randy also showed significant interest and talent in art since his childhood. He also had gathered years of learning, experience and insights into the global art market and business. As one of the Directors of Global Auction, Randy is one of our Modern and Contemporary Art specialists that oversees research, curation, marketing, strategy, and client relations.

CONDITION OF SALE FOR BUYERS

Together with the terms as set out in "INFORMATION FOR BUYERS", these conditions contain all terms in which a buyer contracts with a seller in respect of the sale of a Lot. These terms may be amended at any time by way of notices or oral announcements during the sale and auction. The buyer agrees to be bound by the Conditions when he/she bids to purchase a Lot.

1. Meanings

In these terms and conditions, the following words and expressions have the following meaning:

"Buyer" means the successful bidding buyer of a Lot;

"Catalogue" means the Catalogue prepared by GLOBAL AUCTION which describes and illustrates all Lots for sale by GLOBAL AUCTION;

"Conditions" means these terms and conditions;

"Hammer Price" means the price at which a Lot is sold to Buyer;

"Lot" means each piece of property as described in the Catalogue for which bids are invited for purchase;

"GLOBAL AUCTION", "our", "we", "us" means Global Auction Pte Ltd;

"Reserve Price" means in respect of a Lot, the minimum price which the Seller is prepared to accept from a buyer;

"Seller" means in respect of a particular Lot, the seller of that Lot and his personal representatives;

"$" means the lawful currency of Singapore.

Except where the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa, words importing any one gender shall include all genders, and words importing persons shall include companies and corporations and vice versa.

Unless otherwise stated, references to Clauses are references to Clauses in these Conditions.

The headings appearing in this Agreement are inserted for ease of reference only and shall in no way define, limit or construe the terms and conditions appearing herein.

2. Parties to the sale of a Lot

Unless otherwise stated, a Buyer contracts with a Seller to purchase a Lot. GLOBAL AUCTION acts as the Seller's agent in respect of the sale of a Lot.

3. Bidding

- (a) Registering. Prospective buyers are required to register online at bid.global.auction. You will receive email confirmations indicating that you have successfully registered online.
- (b) Reserve. Unless otherwise stated, all Lots are offered for sale, subject to a Reserve Price which is confidential between Seller and GLOBAL AUCTION. Bids may be placed by representatives of GLOBAL AUCTION on behalf of the Seller up to Reserve Price. There is no obligation on GLOBAL AUCTION to identify bids placed on behalf of the Seller.
- (c) Types of Bids. Bids are solely placed by online only.
- (d) Currency. Prices of all Lots are in Singapore dollars and all bids shall be made in Singapore Dollars. Prices which may be stated in other currencies on the screen during the auction are for reference purposes only.
- (e) Closing of a lot. A countdown clock is displayed for each lot on the lot description. There will be a bidding extension so that there will always be a 3-minute period between the last bid and closing of that lot. These extensions will continue indefinitely until there is no more bidding activity on the lot for a period of 3 minutes. The highest bid will be the successful bidder when the lot closes.
- (f) Buyer's Responsibility. When bidding, a prospective buyer accepts personal responsibility to pay the Hammer Price of the Lot for which he bids if he is successful, together with the following additional amounts being:
 - (i) a buyer's premium of 22% of the Hammer Price
 - (ii) Good and services tax at the applicable rate if any and Premium as set out in Clause 3(f)(i) above; and
 - (iii) Shipping cost, duty and taxes for cross-country pick-up/shipment if needed.

4. Limited Warranty

- (a) No Warranty. Neither the Seller nor GLOBAL AUCTION makes any warranty on respect of the description of any Lot, its value or its quality. Save for the limited warranty set out in this Clause 4(b) below, the Buyer purchases a Lot 'as is' without any representative or warranty of any kind by GLOBAL AUCTION or the Seller. The contents of the Catalogue are statements of opinion only and do not constitute any representation or warranty whatsoever in respect of any Lot.
- (b) Limited Warranty. The Seller and GLOBAL AUCTION only warrant that the Lot is related to the artist named in its description in the Catalogue. In the event of any allegation of lack of authenticity or forgery, the Buyers is required to notify GLOBAL AUCTION in writing within a period of one year (the "Notice") from the date of auction.
- (c) Contents of Notice. The Notice shall include written evidence from a reputable independent expert who is able to show that the Lot is forgery. GLOBAL AUCTION or the Seller reserves the right to request for further evidential proof from other experts if in their respective opinions either of them is not satisfied with the finding of the Buyer's expert.
- (d) Refund. In the event that GLOBAL AUCTION is satisfied with the evidence as enclosed in the Notice and subject to (i) receipt of the full refund from the Seller and (ii) the return of the Lot in such condition as it was sold, a refund of the purchase price for that Lot will be made to the Buyer. The liability of GLOBAL AUCTION and Seller is limited to the purchase price of such Lot. Neither GLOBAL AUCTION nor the Seller shall be liable for any other damages, costs and expenses that may be incurred in presenting the Notice.
- (e) Conflict of Opinion. In the event of conflict opinion between the Buyer's expert and the expert appointed by GLOBAL AUCTION or the Seller, or if it can be shown that test of authenticity would involve scientific process which could damage or otherwise jeopardize the condition of the Lot and which scientific process did not exist at the time of the publication of the Catalogue, no refund will be made of the affected Lot.
- (f) No assignment of Limited Warranty. The Limited warranty in this clause 4 is for the benefit of the Buyer only and cannot be assigned to any third party.

5. Payment, title and collection of purchases

- (a) Deadline for payment. All payments for sold Lots must be made within seven calendar days from the date of sale, notwithstanding that the Buyer wishes to export the Lot and is applying for an export/import licence.

(b) Title. No title in the Lot will pass to Buyer until all amounts due to GLOBAL AUCTION as stated in Clause 3(f) above have been paid, even in circumstances where Global Auction has released the Lot to the Buyer before full payment has been made.

(c) Payment Modes. Payment must be made either in Singapore Dollars or Indonesian Rupiah through Telegraphic Transfer. The SGD/IDR exchange rate will be determined by Global Auction based on the SGD/IDR exchange rate on the day of closing. Payment instruction details will be sent to your registered email address or registered mobile number by our finance department at : finance@global.auction

(d) Collection. The Buyer is required to collect his purchase from the premises of GLOBAL AUCTION and pay for all delivery and shipping costs. GLOBAL AUCTION may assist the Buyer in making packing and shipping arrangements at the Buyer's own costs and risk.

(e) Export, import Restrictions. Property comprised in a Lot may be subject to laws governing export out of Indonesia and import restrictions in foreign countries. It is responsibility of the Buyer to comply with all export and import regulations imposed by the relevant authorities.

(f) Storage Charges. All purchases will initially be held for collection at the premises of GLOBAL AUCTION at no charge for a period of fourteen days from the date of Sale. Subsequently GLOBAL AUCTION will charge the Buyer storage charges at the rate of $10 a day per Lot, together with all other transport, handling, removal, insurance and other expenses where a Lot is transported to another location pending collection.

(g) Limit on insurance cover. GLOBAL AUCTION provides general insurance cover for sold Lots for a period of up to seven days from the date of sale such Lots. Subsequently, risk of such Lots will transfer to the respective Buyers.

6. Non-payment

Where a Buyer fails to make payment with cleared funds within the stipulated time, GLOBAL AUCTION and/or the Seller shall be entitled, in addition to all other rights and remedies available under the law, to"

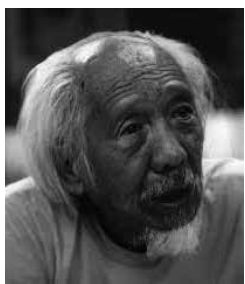

- (a) Charge default interest at the rate of 1.5% per month in the outstanding sums due from the buyer;
- (b) To commence legal proceedings against the Buyer for recovery of all outstanding sums, including interest, legal fees, costs and other expenses on a full indemnity basis;
- (c) Rescind the sale of the Lot;
- (d) To resell the property on such terms as they deem fit and to set-off the proceeds of sale against the outstanding sums unpaid by the Buyer;
- (e) To hold the Lot as security; pledge or lien pending payment of all outstanding sums due from the Buyer.

7. Copyright

The copyright in all images, illustrations and literature, including the Catalogue is the property of GLOBAL AUCTION and shall not be used by the Buyer without the prior written consent to GLOBAL AUCTION. No warranty is made by GLOBAL AUCTION and the Seller that the Buyer of a Lot shall acquire any intellectual property rights in it or to reproduce it.

8. Miscellaneous

- (a) Notwithstanding anything stated in these conditions, the Buyer shall indemnify basis, in respect of any loss, damage, cost or expense that may be incurred by either the Seller or GLOBAL AUCTION in respect of any breach by the Buyer of these Conditions.
- (b) If any part of this agreement is found by any courts to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that part may be discounted and the rest of the agreement shall continue to be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- (c) GLOBAL AUCTION will hold Buyer's personal data and may communicate it to affiliated companies worldwide for the purposes of enabling the Buyer to consign or purchase property or services and, unless the Buyer objects, advising of forthcoming sales, events and service.
- (d) These conditions are subject to Singapore Law, which shall apply to its construction as well as to its effect.
- (e) Where a translation of this agreement has been provided, the English language version shall prevail in case of conflict.

Affandi

Affandi is one of the most prominent maestros of 20th-century Indonesian art. He was the first Indonesian artist to participate in the prestigious São Paulo Biennale (1952) and Venice Biennale (2024).

In this painting, Affandi depicts a sow, or an adult female pig. The central focus is the sow, rendered in bold strokes of black, white, yellow, and red. Surrounding the main figure are additional pigs, suggesting a group of pigs, perhaps in a farm setting. This work exemplifies Affandi's signature style, marked by swirling brushstrokes and his direct application of paint onto the canvas.

The red accents in the sow's eyes add emotional intensity, breaking the earthy tones with a vivid focal point. The subject of the sow also reflects Affandi's connection to everyday life in Indonesia, grounding his expressive style in familiar and culturally significant imagery.

In The Masks (Topeng-Topeng), Affandi invites us to confront the raw and fragmented nature of human identity. Through his unrestrained brushstrokes, he brings to life eight masks, each embodying emotions like joy, despair, anger, and madness. A small yet radiant sun in the upper left corner—a recurring motif in Affandi's works.

The painting invites viewers to reflect on the facades we wear and the truths we conceal. These masks also carry a distinctly Indonesian essence, with some resembling wayang or barong, deeply rooted cultural symbols, enriching the dialogue between identity and tradition.

Hendra Gunawan

Hendra Gunawan, an iconic Indonesian maestro born in Bandung, began his artistic journey in the 1930s, blending traditional Indonesian themes with a modern artistic approach. His works, celebrated worldwide, are displayed in galleries and museums, including the Venice Biennale 2024.

Hendra's Fruit Seller vividly captures Indonesian culture through a dynamic market scene. Two women, dressed in contrasting colors—one in vibrant purple and the other in deep black—sell tropical fruits like bananas and soursop. Their outfits are adorned with intricate batik patterns that symbolize Indonesia's rich heritage.

The vibrant color palette is a hallmark of Hendra's style, radiating life and energy. In the background, two faint figures walk amidst a surreal landscape of twisting trees and a dreamlike horizon, adding depth and an ethereal quality to the scene.

Auke Cornelis Sonnega

Auke Cornelis Sonnega, a Dutch artist deeply inspired by the culture of Bali and Java, is known for his paintings he made on the islands of Bali and Java. Influenced by European artists like Walter Spies and Rudolf Bonnet, Sonnega adopted their approach to incorporate modern portraiture into Balinese art traditions. After spending many years in Indonesia, he returned to the Netherlands in 1957.

Sonnega demonstrates his portraiture expertise in Two Balinese Men, highlighting the intricate expressions and features of the two subjects. Each man is adorned with a flower behind his ear, subtly reflecting Balinese tradition.

Srihadi Soedarsono

Srihadi Soedarsono's Jukung Boat presents his signature horizontal line that elegantly divides the composition, separating the deep blue sky from the light gray beach. The sky, with its dark blue tones, dominates the painting, while the beach sand offers a harmonious counterpoint in a subtle, muted gray.

The focal point of the painting is the white jukung boat, a traditional Indonesian fishing vessel known for its slender, lightweight design. The boat stands out against the gray sand, symbolizing the simple yet resilient life of fishermen.

Beyond its physical presence, the jukung boat also represents the hopes and dreams carried by the waves toward the infinite horizon, embodying the connection between the sea and the lives of those who depend on it.

Ahmad Sadali

This 1983 painting by Ahmad Sadali exemplifies his mastery of abstract art, with its bold use of texture, earthy tones, and sAhmad Sadali is a pioneer of abstract art in Indonesia. Known for blending cubist influences from his studies at the Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB) with modern art techniques acquired during his time in the United States, Sadali developed a distinctive style that is both profound and evocative.

This painting features an abstract arrangement dominated by textured shades of green. Four golden shapes emerge at the top, their luminous presence contrasting sharply with the muted turquoise and green tones.

At the base, a horizontal gold line serves as a grounding element. The textured surface, marked by geometric patterns and eroded edges, reflects Sadali's fascination with the interplay between decay and renewal.

Basoeki Abdullah

Basoeki Abdullah, a renowned Indonesian painter, was celebrated for his mastery of realism, with his works showcased at the Indonesian National Gallery. Formally trained in The Hague, he gained international recognition after winning an art contest commemorating the accession of Queen Juliana of the Netherlands.

In his figurative works, Basoeki demonstrated an exceptional ability to depict subjects with such detail and accuracy that they resembled photographs. This skill is evident in his painting Nude, which portrays a woman reclining face-down on a beach, her hair flowing freely. The seawater gently touches her feet, adding a sense of serenity and natural beauty to the composition.

S. Sudjojono, often regarded as the father of Indonesian modern art, was a pioneering artist, art critic, and writer who played a key role in shaping Indonesia's art movement. He co-founded influential groups such as PERSAGI (Association of Indonesian Drawing Specialists) and Seniman Indonesia Muda (Young Indonesian Artists' Collective).

Dullah

Dullah, one of Indonesia's most renowned realist painters and former art curator for the Presidential Palace during President Soekarno's era, captures the serene beauty of Bali in this painting of Pura Ulun Danu Beratan Bedugul.

The iconic temple stands gracefully on the calm waters, surrounded by lush green hills that rise majestically in the background, creating a tranquil and picturesque atmosphere. In the foreground, a small wooden boat with figures adds a human element to the composition, grounding the scene in daily life.

Romualdo Locatelli

Romualdo Locatelli (1905–1943), a renowned Italian painter of the "Mooi Indie" Orientalist style, was known for his ability to capture the essence of his subjects with sensitivity and finesse. After gaining acclaim in Italy, he moved to Southeast Asia, where the vibrant cultures and natural landscapes greatly inspired his artistic journey.

Titled Riposo in Montagna (Rest in the Mountain), this painting by Locatelli presents a peaceful and intimate moment featuring a woman and a child relaxing on a hillside, accompanied by a white goat nearby. The woman, clad in traditional clothing, shares a tender interaction with the child, while the soft blue sky and verdant greenery in the background create a timeless and serene ambiance.

Widayat

Widayat, a prominent Indonesian artist celebrated for his "magic-decorative" style, masterfully combines elements of nature and spirituality in his works. His unique artistic approach draws from Indonesia's rich cultural heritage, often portraying dense forests, flora, and fauna with a distinct decorative flair.

Titled Primitive Statue, this painting by Widayat features five traditional statues aligned, each intricately detailed with patterns and textures. The dominant earthy brown tones of the background add a sense of mystery, reflecting the enduring essence of ancient traditions. The layered details and textured surface give the artwork a tactile, almost sculptural presence.

Antonio Blanco

Antonio Blanco was an artist born in Manila to Spanish parents. After studying at the National Academy of Art in New York and traveling extensively, he found his artistic sanctuary in Bali in 1952. There, the King of Ubud gifted him land to build his home and studio, where he immersed himself in Bali's vibrant culture alongside his Balinese wife, Ni Ronji, a renowned dancer.

In Djoged Dancer, Blanco captures the grace and fluidity of a traditional Balinese dancer. The figure, wearing a pink-dominated costume, is portrayed with soft, expressive strokes. Set against a minimalist white background, the dancer seems to float, her dynamic pose and vibrant colors drawing attention to her elegance.

1 Gusti Ketut Kobot

Born in Pengosekan, Ubud – Bali, in 1917, Kobot was a member of the Pita Maha painters group from 1936 to 1942. Unlike other painters in the group, his painting style was highly individualistic. Most of his paintings reflect the stories of the Ramayana and Mahabharata.

During the 1920s, many painters in Ubud and its surrounding areas were influenced by Western painters such as Rudolf Bonnet and Walter Spies. Some Balinese painters, including Kobot, continued to use traditional themes, combining them with new influences.

In 1975, he held a solo exhibition at Puri Lukisan Museum in Ubud. In the same year, he participated in an exhibition in Sydney, Australia, alongside young painters from Pengosekan. In 1978, he received the Wijaya Kusuma Art Award from the Regional Government of Gianyar and the Dharma Kusuma Award from the Bali government.

Sumardi

Born in Solo, Central Java, in 1917, Sumardi became a professional painter specializing in portraiture after completing Dutch school in 1937. In 1938, he worked as an assistant to American artist W. Stoyed, who visited the Sunan's palace in Surakarta to create portrait drawings of the royal family. From Stoyed, Sumardi gained valuable knowledge of European realism, particularly in human anatomy.

Sumardi became renowned as a realist artist with a distinct romantic touch. Some of his works adorn the walls of state palaces in Jakarta and Bogor, and one was featured in The Paintings Collection of President Soekarno, Book IV (1957), compiled by Lee Man Fong. He participated in several group exhibitions in Solo, Semarang, Surabaya, and Jakarta, often organized by the Surakarta Cultural Center (Himpunan Budaya Surakarta).

Raden Soekardji

Raden Soekardji began painting in the early 20th century and became well-known as a landscape painter associated with the "Mooi Indie" style. His works attracted the interest of many Dutch expatriates. He was contemporaries with notable "Mooi Indie" artists such as R. Abdullah Suriosubroto (1878–1914), Wakidi (1889–1979), and Mas Pringadi (1875–1936).

Soekardji's paintings often depicted the beauty of Indonesian nature, showcasing rivers, jungles, and the daily activities of people living in villages. His mastery of light and shade added depth and emotion to his works, making them highly admired.

Gregorius Sidharta Soegijo

Born in Yogyakarta in 1932, Gregorius Sidharta Soegijo studied at Akademi Seni Rupa Indonesia (ASRI), Yogyakarta, and the Jan Van Eyck Academy in Maastricht, the Netherlands. He participated in exhibitions in Indonesia and internationally, including in Poland, India, Japan, Norway, Singapore, Canada, the Philippines, and Thailand. Recognized with several awards from the Indonesian government, his sculptures are featured in parks and plazas abroad. From 1958 to 1964, he taught at ASRI Yogyakarta and later lectured at the Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB).

His awards include Best Painting by the Badan Musyawarah Kebudayaan Nasional (1952), the Indonesian Government Art Award (1980), and the ASEAN Cultural Award (1990). He created numerous public monuments in Indonesia, Korea, the Philippines, and Japan. After retiring from ITB in 1997, he chaired the Indonesian Association of Sculptors (API) from 2000 to 2003.

Handrio

Handrio was born in 1926 in Purwakarta and began his painting career under Basuki Abdullah. During the Japanese period, he studied with Sudjojono and Agus Djaja at Keimin Bunka Shidoso and Poetera in Jakarta. Initially, his works reflected realism and surrealism, but by the 1950s, he shifted to a semi-abstract style, breaking shapes into geometric planes. This approach set him apart from Yogyakarta painters of the time, who focused on populist themes. His semi-abstract works often analyzed still life objects and musical instruments.

By the late 1960s, these forms evolved into dynamic and complex geometric spaces. In the 1980s, Handrio's abstract style reached its peak, characterized by a masterful use of space, planes, and color. His works from this period convey rhythm, complexity, balance, and a dynamic visual harmony.

Rudy Pranadjaya

Rudy Pranadjaya was born in Cirebon, West Java, Indonesia, on November 17, 1948. At the age of 16, in 1964, he moved to Bandung to study art under Barli Sasmitawinata and Srihadi Soedarsono. A modern painter, Rudy drew inspiration from traditional Indonesian art forms. His first exhibition was held in Surabaya, Java, in 1965. From 1968 to 1971, he lived in Bali, where he became deeply immersed in traditional Balinese imagery, which influenced his works.

Between 1971 and 1975, Rudy studied art at Studio Rangka Gempol in Bandung under Barli Sasmitawinata, focusing on modern art techniques. He participated in many group and solo exhibitions in Indonesia and abroad. In 1981–1982, he undertook a study tour in Europe, visiting Denmark, Switzerland, France, and Germany. A member of “Kelompok Seniman Bandung,” he later became inspired by the traditional wayang kulit (leather puppets) unique to his hometown of Cirebon. Rudy passed away in 2005 in Bandung, Indonesia.

Hasan

Hasan is an Indonesian artist who was born in Sumenep, Madura. He holds undergraduate and master's degrees from the Indonesian Institute of the Arts in Surakarta and has been active in the art world for over two decades.

He has participated in notable exhibitions such as "KONTRAKSI" at the National Gallery of Indonesia and "Sepayung Indonesia" at Keraton Mangkunegaran Surakarta. His achievements include participation in the Grand Art Exhibition by the Indonesian Ministry of Education and Culture and a nomination for the BAZAAR Art Award in 2010.

Hasan's work explores personal and global issues through imaginative, symbolic visuals, creating a contemporary surrealistic atmosphere with elements like monsters, fire, trees, stones, and human figures. His creative process involves in-depth research and exploration, ensuring each symbol effectively conveys his artistic vision.
