Message from Sidharta Auctioneer: Research, Provenance and History

In preparing our second auction this year, many art events happened, such as the Senandung ibu Pertiwi exhibition of the Presidential Palace's art collection, an exhibition of the work of Nasjah Djamin, both at the National Gallery of Indonesia, ArtJakarta, Art Stage Jakarta, ICAD's Murni exhibition, all in Jakarta, Indonesia's participation in Europhalia in various cities in Europe, the Jakarta and Yogyakarta biennales, the Between Worlds exhibition featuring the work and life of Juan Luna and Raden Saleh at the National Gallery, Singapore, and last but not least the amazing sale of Salvatore Mundi, a painting that has been authenticated as a work by Leonardo Da Vinci in a New York auction for a hammer price of US$ 400 million. Many of these events, along with a legal trial for the sale of works of forgery that happened in Singapore earlier this year, underline the importance of three aspects in the world of art today: research, provenance and history.

It may be no coincidence that the works in this auction have come from various interesting collections, and many works in the collection have art historical and historical significance. We are proud to present artworks from the collection of Haryono Haryoguritno, world expert in traditional keris and passionate collector of cultural artefacts. Among the wonderful pieces in this collection, emerged a rare portrait of a young woman from Bangalore by Edhi Sunarso (lot #036), done during his stay in India in 1956-7.

Other than the Portrait of Megha, previously mentioned, there are also a number of portraits of various figures including a painting of Indonesian politician and the nation's fifth Prime Minister, Mohammad Natsir, by Henk Ngantung (lot #032), Wardoyo's self portrait (#038), Soerono's portrait of Affandi (lot #039), a painting of gentleman by Basoeeki Abdullah (#028), and Soenarto Pr.'s painting of a young girl (lot #035). While there are a number of other portraits in the auction, Lee Man Fong's portrait of microbiologist H.O.K Tanzil is one that has historical significance.

Henk Ngantung's painting of the Laksar KRIS (Karawang) militia group (lot #161), provides a glimpse of artistic life during the Indonesian Revolutionary War of 1945 - 1949. Meanwhile, from the collection of the late Leo Wattimena, an important figure in the Indonesian Air Force, we feature a painting by Trubus Soedarsono depicting a scene from the Dwikora Operations in 1964 (lot #135).

While there are many paintings by important artists including Popo Iskandar, Srihadi Soedarsono and A. D. Pirous, Nyoman Gunarsa, Kriyono, Arifien, Neif and many others are offered, we pay special tribute to the late Arie Smit who passed away almost two years ago, and the late Bagong Kussudiardja, whose 90th birth anniversary will be coming up next year.

Recognizing the importance of research, provenance and history, we always try our best to offer artworks that will not only appeal artistically to our clients, but also artworks that have cultural and historical significance, so as to enrich the lives of those who will be experiencing, appreciating and interacting with them on a daily basis. I hope you enjoy our auction!

GUIDE FOR BIDDERS

Bidding at the Auction

The following pages are designed to give any prospective bidders useful information on how to bid and buy at Sidharta Auctioneer's Fine Art auction (the "Auction" or the "Sale").

1. BEFORE THE AUCTION

Estimates

The estimated price range of each lot, printed below the description of each lot, is intended solely to be a guide for prospective buyers. Any bid between the high and the low estimated price range would, in our opinion, offer a fair chance of success in the purchase of the lot. However, all lots, depending on the degree of competition, can realise prices either above or below the estimates. Estimates do not include the Buyer's Premium.

Reserves

The reserve is a confidential minimum price the seller is willing to accept in the sale of the lot. If the highest bid of the lot fails to reach the reserve, the lot will not be sold.

Pre-Auction Viewing/Condition of Lots

Prior to the Auction, viewings will be open to public and free of charge. The condition of each lot is described in the condition report which Sidharta Auctioneer prepared with reasonable effort and good professional manner. We strongly encourage interested buyers to request these condition reports and to examine the lots properly. The absence of reference to the condition of a lot in the catalog description does not imply that the lot is free from faults or imperfections.

2. THE AUCTION

Buyer's Terms

The Auction is governed by the Terms for Buyers and Sales Terms printed in this catalog. These Terms apply to all aspects of the relationship between Sidharta Auctioneer and actual and prospective bidders and buyers. Anyone considering bidding in the Auction should read and understand them carefully. They may be amended by way of notices posted in the saleroom or by way of announcement made by the auctioneer.

Bidding at the Auction

Registration is required for all bidders 30 minutes prior to the start of the Auction. The identity of bidders will be verified. Bids may be executed in person by the use of paddle or by telephone through Sidharta Auctioneer's staff during the Auction, or in writing prior to the Sale. The Auction speeds vary, but usually average between 50-60 lots per hour.

We reserve the right to refuse admission to the premises or participation in any auction and to reject any bid.

Consecutive and Responsive Bidding

The auctioneer may open the bidding on any lot by placing a bid on behalf of the seller. The auctioneer may further bid on behalf of the seller, by placing consecutive or responsive bids for a lot, up to amount of the reserve.

The lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order with video image or any manner of display we consider appropriate. Bidding is done in Indonesian Rupiah in incremental price increase. The auctioneer accepts bids from those present in the saleroom, from telephone bidders, or by absentee bids left with us in advance of the Auction.

Bidding Increments

Bidding generally opens below the low estimates and progresses in the following increments:

Rp. 1.000.000,-	to	Rp. 3.000.000,-	by	Rp. 200.000,-

The auctioneer may change the increments during the course of the Auction at his or her discretion.

Bidding in person

To bid in person at the Auction, registered bidders should collect their numbered paddle before the Auction begins. Proof of identity references and registration will be required to collect paddles.

The paddle is used to indicate your bids to the auctioneer during the Sale. Successful buyers of any lot should ensure that their paddle is visible to the auctioneer and that it is their number that is called out as the successful bidder. Should there be any doubts as to price or buyer, the bidder should draw the auctioneer's attention to it immediately. All lots sold will be invoiced to the name and address in which the paddle has been registered and cannot be transferred to other names and addresses.

Please do not mislay your paddle; in the event of loss please inform the sales clerk immediately. At the end of the Sale, please return your paddle to the registration desk.

Absentee Bids

Prospective buyers who are unable to attend the Auction can submit absentee bids using Written Bid form that can be found on page 145 of this catalog. This service is confidential. Absentee Bids can be in the form of a Written Bid or Telephone Bid. The Absentee Bid type should be indicated on the form.

Absentee bids must be confirmed before the Sale by letter. To ensure satisfactory service to bidders, please ensure that we receive your bids at least 24 hours before the Sale.

E-mail for bids : info@sidharta-auctioneer.com or info@sidharta.co

Written Bids

Prospective buyers who would like to entrust Sidharta Auctioneer to execute bids on their behalf can place a written bid ("Written Bid"). In the Written Bid form you MUST specify the lot number, the description of the item and the top limit. Unlimited or unspecified bids such as instructions to (buy) will not be accepted. Although the Top Limit is denoted, lots will always be bought as cheaply as is consistent with other bids and the reserves. In the case of identical bid limits, the earliest bid received will take precedence.

Bidding by Telephone

Prospective buyers who would like to participate in our auction but are unable to attend the auction, can do so remotely through the moderation of Sidharta Auctioneer's staff by placing phone bids on the lots. Due to limited number of phone bid representatives, we can only cater to five (5) phone bidders of the same lot, and It will be on a first come, first served basis. Therefore if you wish to place phone bids, we strongly advise you to please register your bids as soon as possible. If all our phone bid representatives are already fully occupied, then your phone bids will be automatically switched into written bids. For all absentee bidding, phone or written, you are required to state your top limit of bid in the absentee bid form.

Successful Bids

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid (the "Hammer Price"). The auctioneer's will call out and record the paddle number of the buyer. If your written bid is successful, you will be notified immediately after the Sale by post. Bidding may be reopened at the auctioneer's discretion.

Currency Conversion

Since bidding is carried out in Indonesian Rupiah, a currency converter may be operated, based on the most recently available rates of exchange quoted to us by Bank Indonesia applicable on the date of the Auction. However, please note that figures shown in foreign currencies are only approximates and do not represent exact exchange rates.

Risk and responsibility for the lot (but not its title) are transferred to the buyer at the expiration of seven calendar days from the date of the sale or on collection by the buyer if earlier. The buyer will acquire title to the lot when all amounts due to us are received in good cleared funds.

Property of the Late Haryono Haryoguritno

(lots #022 – 050)

Haryono Haryoguritno (Temanggung, C. Java, 26 January 1932– Jakarta, 13 March 2017) was known as a world expert in traditional keris and his contribution to this resulted in the Indonesian Keris being recognised as a Masterpiece of the Oral and Intangible Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO in 2005. In 2008, the Indonesian Keris was inscribed on the UNESCO Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity. His own book, Keris Jawa, Antara Mistik dan Nalar, was published in 2007.

Haryono had had many interesting professions during his long and colourful life. To name a few, he was once an adjutant to President Soekarno, a naval officer, a teacher, a journalist, a mechanical engineer by training, but underneath it all, he was fundamentally an artist, an interior designer and a cultural ambassador by profession and at heart. He designed among others, the grand ballroom of Nusa Dua Hotel in Bali, the lobby of Borobudur Hotel, Jakarta (before the renovation) and created the perfect miniature of Borobudur temple up to its minuscule detail, which currently is still displayed in the garden of Borobudur Hotel. For his services in the field of culture, he was awarded the Satya Lancana Kebudgayaan medal for culture by President of Indonesia, the Manusia Dwija title by the Surabaya Arts Education Foundation of Surabaya, the Gold Service Medal from the Javanese Culture Institute Centre of Surakarta, and many other awards.

Throughout his adult life, Haryono had been an avid and passionate collector of arts in whatever forms (paintings, sculptures, statues), cultural objects and antiques. His passion for art and culture (which has started since childhood), his interaction and introduction to famous painters and artists during his tenure as President Soekarno's adjutant, added with his own perfectionist eye for detail, expert craftsmanship and sophisticated taste for beauty have resulted in an impressive, fascinating and most varied collections of arts.

Sidharta Auctioneer is honoured to feature a selection of his painting collections here. His other collections will be presented in our upcoming auctions next year.

Megha, A Young Woman from Bangalore

(lots #036)

Lot #036 in this auction features Edhi Sunarso's painting of Megha, a young woman from Bangalore. It was painted while he continued his studies at the Kelabhawa Visva Bharati University Santiniketan pada from 1956 to 1957, after graduating from Yogyakarta's Indonesian Fine Art Academy (ASRI, now ISI).

During that time, he signed his works "Eddy Sunarso", instead of "Edhi Sunarso", which started to use later.

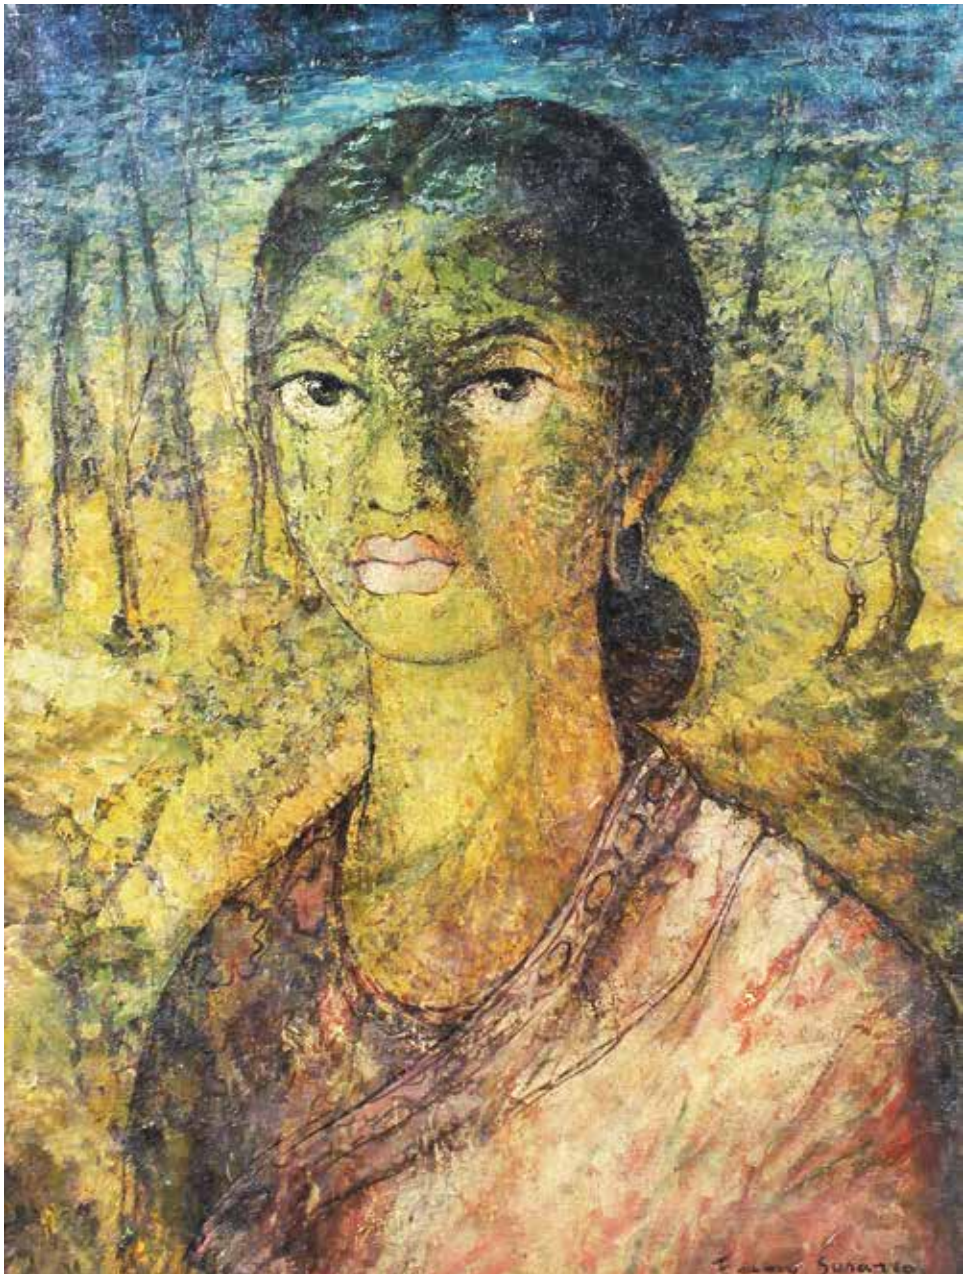

Some photographs from the artist's archives show that Edhi Sunarso seemed to have also worked on a sculpture of a woman when he was in India, and it is very likely that it also depicts Megha, young woman from Bangalore.

This portrait of Megha seems to be part of a significant point in the sculptor's artistic development. According to Mikke Susanto, the artist's biographer, it seems quite rare for the artist to have done both a sculpture and a painting of the same subject. This depiction of Megha might be the only painting which the artist did of a subject he also painted.

A Tribute to Bagong Kussudiardja

(lots # 093-096)

Bagong Kussudiardja (Yogyakarta, 9 October 1928 - 15 June 2004), trained under the renowned dance choreographer Martha Graham in New York as early as 1957. Upon his return to Indonesia he founded the Pusat Latihan Tari Bagong Kussudiardja (Bagong Kussudiardja Center for Dance) in 1958, followed by Padepokan Seni Bagong Kussudiardja (Bagong Kussudiardja Center for the Arts) in 1978, where he choreographed more than 200 dances. Although he was better known as a contemporary dance choreographer, Bagong Kussudiardja was also an established painter. He painted the arts, culture and natural landscapes of Indonesia. Yet, Balinese and Javanese dances seemed to be the source of his inspiration of most of his paintings.

Next year will mark the 90th anniversary of Bagong Kussudiardjo's birth. There are plans to celebrate it with various events, including the launching of a book on his artworks.

During his stay in Washington, D.C., Affandi felt very much at home, enjoying the hospitality of the family of Doedi Soemawidjaja, the Indonesian cultural attaché at the time, with whom he stayed. As a token of gratitude, the artist presented his host with this painting.

The painting was purchased from the family of the late cultural attaché.

This painting has been authenticated by Kartika Affandi, the daughter of the artist. A certificate of authenticity for this painting had been issued in 1995. Unfortunately, the original certificate is yet to be found.

Paratroopers Boarding the Hercules

by Trubus Soedarsono

(lots #135)

In 1958, Allan Pope, an American civilian pilot suspected to be working for the CIA in support of the Permesta rebellion, was shot down. He was captured, taken into custody, but was eventually released. During President Sukarno's visit to the United States in 1959, President John F. Kennedy offered a token of gratitude for Pope's release. It was the Lockheed C-140 Jetstar to be used as the Presidential aircraft, replacing the Soviet Ilyushin Il-14 which was used at that time.

When Sukarno visited the Lockheed factory in 1961, he chose the Hercules C-130B to replace the Indonesian Air Force's Canadian de Havilland DHC-4 Caribou transport airplanes. Indonesian pilots ferry flew the ten C-130B over a 13,000 mile distance to Indonesia. The planes were assigned to the Heavy Transportation Air Squadron 31 of the Indonesian Air Force.

Leo Wattimena who in 1964 was the Commander of the Air Force Operations Command, personally commissioned Trubus to paint a number of paintings surrounding the activities of the Air Force. Although the painting does not clearly depict the form of the airplane, it is quite clear that the paratroopers are walking onto a hinged loading ramp at the rear of the fuselage, into the body of the airplane, typical of and unique to the design of the Hercules. During the Dwikora operations in September 1964, three Hercules planes were used to fly the Air Force's Pasukan Gerak Tjepat paratroopers, dropping them in Kalimantan in covert operations against Malaysia.

An Homage to Arie Smit

(15 April 1916 – 23 March 2016)

(lots #142 – 145)

Dutch-born Indonesian artist Arie Smit passed away on 23 March 2016, just less than a month shy of his 100th birthday. Born in Zandaam, The Netherlands, in 1916, in the middle of the first World War, it was his dream and life long goal to gain complete freedom by becoming an artist. Ironically, the young Arie Smit arrived in Indonesia in 1938 on military contract, and was assigned to the Topographical Service. Following the Japanese occupation in 1942, as a prisoner of war, he was taken into forced labor camps in Singapore, Thailand, and Burma. Yet, after the Dutch finally acknowledged Indonesia's sovereignty in 1949, Arie Smit chose to remain in the new republic and became an Indonesian citizen as early as 1951.

By 1955, he had already held three solo exhibitions, at the Kolff in Jakarta, the BPM in Plaju, Palembang, and in Bandung. Yet, he only decided to become a full time painter in 1956, when he came to Bali upon painter Rudolf Bonnet and art connoisseur and dealer James Pandey's invitation. Although the trip to Bali was supposed to be a relatively brief visit, the painter decided to stay on the island, apparently for good, as he has remained there for almost half a century now. Yet, Arie could not stay still in a single place in Bali. While remaining on the island of Bali, he moved from one place to another: Ubud, Campuhan, Sanur, Tanjung Bungkak near Denpasar, Singaraja, and even Lovina Beach.

Since the 1970s, Arie Smit painted using mosaics of color that are brushed onto the canvas in rapid strokes. "My colors do not clash, they blend. Lines do not divide but unite," he further asserted. The artist's spontaneous brush strokes, applied to outline or highlight the shapes and forms in his paintings in this period, often elicit a vibrant effect. "The brush strokes move and move. They create the life of the painting," he affirms. The outlines of the forms of architecture, as well as the effects of the wind's motion on the vegetation around the temple, all animate the nuance of the painting. Arie Smit's works reflected his vibrant activities, constantly moving around the island and not being able to remain still at one place.

Arie finally decided to move back to Ubud in 1989, after living in Singaraja for four years, when Suteja Neka offered Arie Smit to stay at his Villa Sanggingan Bungalows, situated not far from the Neka Museum in Sanggingan. Arie accepted this kind offer. Starting in 1990 he settled in at his new home, after having moved at least thirty times throughout the thirty-four years of his time in Bali. He was at last somewhere for good.

While it seemed that he was going to retire, the artist continued to be productive and creative for over another decade. Until just a few years ago, even after an eye cataract operation, he still painted in his studio, using his memories of the scenes that he has accumulated throughout almost half a century of his life on the Island of Bali. Sadly, in the last few years of his life the artist chose to stop painting, spending his days quietly lying in bed. Although his memory still remained sharp as a razor, and physically he remains quite strong, it seems that his failing eyesight is the reason that he was no longer interested in searching for light and colors. He seemed to have desperately waited for his ultimate freedom.

AFTER RADEN SALEH, ALBERT HENRY PAYNE, ENGRAVER

(London, 1812 - Leipzig, 1902)

Last Resort

engraving

34 x 44 cm

signed (lower right): "A.H Payne sc"

RP. 10 - 15.000.000

Raden Saleh's painting "Last Resort" made a deep impression on the art world in Dresden and Leipzig when it was presented by its owner, the collector Schletter (Leipzig). Immediately it was reproduced by H.F. Grünewald and it added to the so called "Tiedge Album" which appeared in Dresden 1842. Three years later it was engraved again, this time by Albert Henry Payne, a British engraver who had moved his business to Leipzig. The steel engraving was meant as a gift for those who subscribed to Payne's journal Payne's Universum (German edition) and Payne's Pictural World (English edition). Payne's Universum was also sold in America and it must have been the first time that Raden Saleh's name was mentioned in an American journal. The engraving was announced as "A splendid Premium Plate, engraved in the line manner, of the "Attack of the Lion" after the picture of his H.R.H. Prince Raden Saleh, measuring 17 inches by 13 inches, printed on sheet imperial paper, and equal in execution to the plates of the art union." In 1864 Payne reprinted his steel engraving as an illustration for the article "Ein javanischer Prinz als Maler" in: Illustriertes Familien-Journal, A.H.Payne, Leipzig und Dresden, Volume 21, 1864, p. 281.

Henk Ngantung's Laskar Rakjat KRIS Karawang

(lots #161)

Following the Indonesian Independence, 17 August 1945, Dutch Forces along with the Allied Forces returned to the region to claim their rights to their former colonies, sparking what is known as the Indonesian Revolutionary War (1945-1949). Many civilian citizens of the new republic from various provinces around the country formed their own militia groups. Citizens from Sulawesi formed the Kebaktian Rakyat Indonesia Sulawesi (literal translation: The Awakening of the People of Indonesia from Sulawesi) militia (Laskar KRIS).

Hendrik "Henk" Hermanus Joel Ngantung, born in Manado, N. Sulawesi on 1 March, 1921, was a Manadonese, apparently with Chinese ancestry. He started painting at a tender age of 13, and had his first solo exhibition in Manado in 1936. The following year he went to Java and eventually resided in Batavia. He participated in a group exhibition held at the Kunstkring in Batavia in 1938.

During the Revolutionary War, he seemed to sympathise with the Laskar KRIS, fighting the Dutch and Allied Forces in Karawang. The Dutch eventually recognized Indonesia's sovereignty at the end of 1949.

Henk Ngantung continued to paint, and due to his artistic activities he became close to President Sukarno. In 1960 Sukarno appointed Ngantung as Vice Governor to Jakarta Governor Soemarno. In 1964 Ngantung was appointed Governor, a position he maintain for less than a year.
