MESSAGE FROM SIDHARTA AUCTIONEER

While Indonesia celebrates the 70th Anniversary of Independence this year, Sidharta Auctioneer also celebrates its 10th anniversary. It has been 10 years since we held our first auction in December 2005. Holding over 70 auctions through the course of our first decade, we managed to gain the increasing trust and confidence of our clients, both vendors and buyers, and become a distinct auction house.

We have become known as an auction house that offers unique works of Indonesian art, while maintaining prudence to ensure authenticity of the pieces we offer. In our Fine Art auctions we tend to take an art historical approach, sharing knowledge about Indonesian artists, highlighting works by those who are already famous and sought after by the major collectors, and introducing lesser known artists who actually deserve much more recognition and appreciation from Indonesian art enthusiasts.

In this anniversary auction, we are very proud to feature Hendra Gunawan's Tukang Es Puter (lot #183), a very compelling painting by the artist that not only renders the life of common people, but also expressing its complexities and intricacies. Beyond its simple appearance, we can decipher deeper layers of meaning.

While there are two Affandis dating from the 1970s, we call your attention to a portrait of renowned Indonesian poet Sitor Situmorang (lot #169), which is offered by a gentleman to give an opportunity of younger collectors to also own an Affandi, as he did when he was younger.

As usual, we present works that have been sourced from distinguished collectors. From the collection of a relative of the painter and Governor of Jakarta, Henk Ngantung, are paintings by Yoshioka (lot #062) and Yamamoto (lot #063), Japanese artists who seemed to be active in Java in the 1940s and 1950s. Unfortunately no further information about the artists are available. Three early Henk Ngantung paintings (lots #064, #065 & #066) in the auction have also come from this collection as well as the collection of the gentleman who owns the Affandi portrait of Sitor Situmorang.

From another collection we managed to obtain two works by Basoeeki Abdullah from the 1960s. A painting of water buffaloes (lot #139) and another of a female nude with child (#140), were painted using slightly different approaches to realism, evidencing the painter's mastery of the realist technique.

Our painting and sculpture by Gregorius Sidharta Soegiyo (lots #089 & #090) are also two works that are worthy of mention as they are also important pieces historically. They have also come from the collection of a lady who is relative of the artist.

Many other beautiful, interesting and strong artworks are presented in our auction. While many that we have mentioned date from the 1950s to the 1980s, there are also works by younger contemporary artists that should appeal to young collectors, including many early paintings by the painter Alfi, Eddie Hara, Tisna Sanjaya, Tommy Wondra, Didik Nurhadi, Erica Hestu Wahyuni, Hanafi, Yustoni Volunteero, Rudi St Dharma, Kokok P. Sancoko, Catur Binaprasetyo, Yun Suroso, Zirwen Hazry, Hamdan TT, and Vani Hidayatur Rahman.

We hope that among what we offer in our 10th anniversary sale this time, there will be artworks that make meaningful connections with our clients, current and future. We hope you will enjoy our preview exhibition on October 30th and 31st, 2015 and participate in bidding for your favorite works at our auction on November 1st, 2015

Vita Brevis, Ars Longa! After 10 wonderful years, we wish to continue serving you with art in the years to come!

GUIDE FOR BIDDERS

Bidding at the Auction

The following pages are designed to give any prospective bidders useful information on how to bid and buy at Sidharta Auctioneer's Fine Art auction (the "Auction" or the "Sale").

I. BEFORE THE AUCTION

Estimates

The estimated price range of each lot, printed below the description of each lot, is intended solely to be a guide for prospective buyers. Any bid between the high and the low estimated price range would, in our opinion, offer a fair chance of success in the purchase of the lot. However, all lots, depending on the degree of competition, can realise prices either above or below the estimates. Estimates do not include the Buyer's Premium.

Reserves

The reserve is a confidential minimum price the seller is willing to accept in the sale of the lot. If the highest bid of the lot fails to reach the reserve, the lot will not be sold.

Pre-Auction Viewing/Condition of Lots

Prior to the Auction, viewings will be open to public and free of charge. The condition of each lot is described in the condition report which Sidharta Auctioneer prepared with reasonable effort and good professional manner. We strongly encourage interested buyers to request these condition reports and to examine the lots properly. The absence of reference to the condition of a lot in the catalog description does not imply that the lot is free from faults or imperfections.

2. THE AUCTION

Buyer's Terms

The Auction is governed by the Terms for Buyers and Sales Terms printed in this catalog. These Terms apply to all aspects of the relationship between Sidharta Auctioneer and actual and prospective bidders and buyers. Anyone considering bidding in the Auction should read and understand them carefully. They may be amended by way of notices posted in the saleroom or by way of announcement made by the auctioneer.

Bidding at the Auction

Registration is required for all bidders 30 minutes prior to the start of the Auction. The identity of bidders will be verified. Bids may be executed in person by the use of paddle or by telephone through Sidharta Auctioneer's staff during the Auction, or in writing prior to the Sale. The Auction speeds vary, but usually average between 50-60 lots per hour.

We reserve the right to refuse admission to the premises or participation in any auction and to reject any bid.

Consecutive and Responsive Bidding

The auctioneer may open the bidding on any lot by placing a bid on behalf of the seller. The auctioneer may further bid on behalf of the seller, by placing consecutive or responsive bids for a lot, up to amount of the reserve.

The lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order with video image or any manner of display we consider appropriate. Bidding is done in Indonesian Rupiah in incremental price increase. The auctioneer accepts bids from those present in the saleroom, from telephone bidders, or by absentee bids left with us in advance of the Auction.

Bidding Increments

Bidding generally opens below the low estimates and progresses in the following increments:

Rp. 1.000.000,-	to	Rp. 3.000.000,-	by	Rp. 200.000,-
Rp. 3.000.000,-	to	Rp. 5.000.000,-	by	Rp. 300.000,-

Rp. 1.000.000.000,-	and above: according to auctioneer's direction

The auctioneer may change the increments during the course of the Auction at his or her discretion.

Bidding in person

To bid in person at the Auction, registered bidders should collect their numbered paddle before the Auction begins. Proof of identity references and registration will be required to collect paddles.

The paddle is used to indicate your bids to the auctioneer during the Sale. Successful buyers of any lot should ensure that their paddle is visible to the auctioneer and that it is their number that is called out as the successful bidder. Should there be any doubts as to price or buyer, the bidder should draw the auctioneer's attention to it immediately. All lots sold will be invoiced to the name and address in which the paddle has been registered and cannot be transferred to other names and addresses.

Please do not mislay your paddle; in the event of loss please inform the sales clerk immediately. At the end of the Sale, please return your paddle to the registration desk.

Absentee Bids

Prospective buyers who are unable to attend the Auction can submit absentee bids using Written Bid form that can be found on page 139 of this catalog. This service is confidential. Absentee Bids can be in the form of a Written Bid or Telephone Bid. The Absentee Bid type should be indicated on the form.

Absentee bids must be confirmed before the Sale by letter or fax. To ensure satisfactory service to bidders, please ensure that we receive your bids at least 24 hours before the Sale.

E-mail for bids : info@sidharta-auctioneer.com or info@sidharta.co

Fax number for bids is: +62 21 727 88 283

Written Bids

Prospective buyers who would like to entrust Sidharta Auctioneer to execute bids on their behalf can place a written bid ("Written Bid"). In the Written Bid form you MUST specify the lot number, the description of the item and the top limit. Unlimited or unspecified bids such as instructions to (buy) will not be accepted. Although the Top Limit is denoted, lots will always be bought as cheaply as is consistent with other bids and the reserves. In the case of identical bid limits, the earliest bid received will take precedence.

Bidding by Telephone

For prospective buyers who are unable to attend the Auction but would like to participate in the Auction remotely through the moderation of Sidharta Auctioneer's staff, it is possible to bid on the telephone on lots. An administrative surcharge of Rp. 300.000 will be applied to successful phone bids. As the number of telephone lines is limited, it is necessary to make arrangements for this service 24 hours before the sale. We also suggest that you still indicate a Top Limit maximum bid which we can execute on your behalf in case we are unable to reach you by the telephone. Bilingual staff is available to execute bids for you.

Successful Bids

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid (the "Hammer Price"). The auctioneer's will call out and record the paddle number of the buyer. If your written bid is successful, you will be notified immediately after the Sale by post. Bidding may be reopened at the auctioneer's discretion.

Currency Conversion

Since bidding is carried out in Indonesian Rupiah, a currency converter may be operated, based on the most recently available rates of exchange quoted to us by Bank Indonesia applicable on the date of the Auction. However, please note that figures shown in foreign currencies are only approximates and do not represent exact exchange rates.

TERMS FOR BUYERS

The following terms are applicable for all sales made at the Auction. They are subject to changes, which may be posted or announced during the Sale. Bidders must read and understand these terms as they set out the terms on which properties are sold at the Auction. The bidders and buyers are deemed to agree with and be bound by these terms when bidding at the Auction.

To the extent applicable, the sections under Guides for Bidders are deemed to be inserted into and be an inseparable part of these Terms for Buyers.

GENERAL

Seller's Agent

Unless otherwise stated, we will act as the seller's agent. The concluded sales contract is made between the seller and the buyer through Sidharta Auctioneer.

Buyer's Premium

A premium to the buyer on the final bid price of each lot will be charged at 22% of the Hammer Price ("Buyer's Premium").

Pre-Auction Viewing

When bidding, we assume that interested buyers have already read the condition reports and/or examined the lots and are aware of the current condition of the lot.

Property Sold As Is

All property is sold without any warranty or representation. We are not liable for any errors or omissions in the catalog. The available condition reports are mere statements of opinion and should not be relied on as statements of definitive facts. Descriptions of property are not warranties. All property is sold with all faults and imperfections and errors of description.

ON BIDDING

Absentee Bids

Absentee bids are written instructions from prospective buyers directing us to bid on their behalf up to a maximum amount specified for each lot.

Telephone Bids

Please confirm arrangement for this service with us at least 1 (one) day, 24 (twenty four) hours, before the Auction. An administrative surcharge of Rp. 300.000 will be applied to successful phone bids. Prospective buyers are encouraged to inform the maximum bid, in the event we are unable to reach them by telephone.

Successful Bids

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid, upon which the sales contract between the seller and the buyer is deemed to be concluded.

Transfer of Risk and Title

Subject to the auctioneer's discretion, the highest bid accepted by the auctioneer will be the buyer and the striking of his hammer marks the acceptance of the highest bid and the conclusion of a contract for sale between the seller and the buyer. Risk and responsibility for the lot (but not its title) are transferred to the buyer at the expiration of seven calendar days from the date of the sale or on collection by the buyer if earlier. The buyer will acquire title to the lot when all amounts due to us are received in good cleared funds.

Bidding as Principal

A bidder accepts personal liability to pay the purchase price, including the buyer's premium and any taxes and/or all other charges/fees that may be applicable. In the event a bidder is acting on behalf of an identified third party principal, we will look to the principal for payment.

PAYMENT AND HANDLING

Payment

Full payment must be in good funds within 7 (seven) calendar days as of the Sale. Payment is preferably made by telegraphic transfer (against satisfactory written evidence) directly to:

PT Balai Lelang Horizon

Bank BCA (swift code: CENAJDJA), Panglima Polim Branch, account # 566 - 030 - 6864 or

PT Balai Lelang Horizon

CIMB NIAGA (swift code: BNIADJA), Kemang Branch, account # 253.010.016.8000

Please include your name, purchased lot number, and invoice number in your bank instruction. Purchases will be released upon our confirmation that funds have been fully received in the account mentioned above. Payments with company cheques are accepted, although purchases will not be released until such cheques have been cleared. Payments with credit cards are acceptable although a certain surcharge will be added.

Deliveries and Export/Import Permits

Buyers will be responsible to pick up purchases and to arrange for deliveries with our appointed shipping agencies. Properties to be exported may be subject to any applicable export regulations and import restrictions applicable in the receiver's jurisdictions. Buyers are solely responsible to obtain any required export or import licenses. Failure to obtain these licenses does not cancel the sale or justify any delay in fulfilling the sales payment. Please bear in mind that there will be a fee incurred.

Storage and Insurance

All purchases will initially be held for collection at the Auction room at no charge and covered by insurance for a maximum of seven days as of the date of the Auction, after which the lot will be entirely at the buyer's risk. If purchases are not collected within seven days after the Sale, we shall arrange storage in our warehouse at the buyer's expense.

NON-LIABILITIES

Absentee, Telephone and Written Bids

We do not accept liabilities for failing to execute a written bid or for errors and omissions in connection with it nor do we accept liabilities for failing to contact prospective buyers by telephone or for errors and omissions in connection with telephone bidding.

Operation of Facilities

We do not accept liabilities for errors that may occur in the operation of the currency converter or the video or digital screen (or the quality of the image).

Description or Defects

We will provide, with reasonable effort and good professional manner, a description and condition report concerning each lot. However we do not accept liabilities for any mistaken statements of whatever kind concerning any lot, whether written or oral, nor for any other errors or omissions in description or for any faults or defects in any lot.

REMEDIES

Of Non-Payment

If the buyer fails to make payment in full in good cleared funds within the time required, we reserve the right to choose to take one or more of the following actions (in addition to asserting any other rights or remedies available to us by law):

- a. cancel the sale;
- b. re-sell the property publicly or privately on the terms we think fit;
- c. hold the defaulting buyer liable for the total amount due and to commence legal proceedings for its recovery together with interest, legal fees and other costs;
- d. reject at any future auction any bid made by or on behalf of the defaulting buyer or to obtain deposits before accepting any bids;
- e. take such other action as we deem necessary.

Of Forgeries

We will refund to the buyer the purchase price of the lot in the event of proven forgery, with the condition that claim must be submitted by the buyer within I(one) year as of the Auction date, accompanied with satisfactory evidence in the form of a written opinion of at least 3 (three) independent experts with knowledge on the related property, confirming that the lot is a forgery. We reserve the right to seek for further expert opinion. There will be no refund if there is a conflict of opinion among the related experts. This guarantee applies only to the buyer of the lot and is not assignable to any third party.

From the Collection of a Statesman

(Lots #042-046)

Five paintings in this set originally came from the collection of a statesman who was among the first who aspired to present his collections in a museum. The museum opened following the passing away of the statesman in 1984, but unfortunately by the mid-1990s the collections had started to disappear.

A catalog of the museum's main painting collection of Indonesian masters was published in 1979. While the paintings offered in this auction are not from the main collection of the museum, apparently apart from his collection of Indonesian masters, the statesman also collected paintings by younger, lesser-known artists. He seemed to have a particular interest in paintings that depicted historical/ political themes.

History can not be Forgotten (1968) by Agustin Sibarani seems to depict a particular episode from the 1945-49 Revolutionary War, which he experienced as a young man. Unfortunately it is unclear exactly what incident he depicted. However the painting hopefully will be able to monumentalize its history as the artist intended. Later during his lifetime, he became better known as a political caricaturist.

An unsigned painting from the collection depicts another enigmatic scene that also seems to be related to the war, while a painting by Ismail shows an Indonesian soldier helping his wounded comrade, during the war, reminding people that war is often not about winning battles heroically, but rather about humanity and solidarity.

The two other paintings in this set seem to be a reflection of how Indonesia has progressed since the 1945 Proclamation of Independence. A symbolic painting, Zainal Soetanto's Pelangi Mati (1983) seems to be painted in reaction to ethnic and political tensions that happened in Indonesia in the early 1980s. Through the painting, the artist seems to be making a statement that diversity has been neglected to wither away in the landscape of the nation.

Meanwhile, Suatmadji's Hormat Panglima seems to be a cynical political statement about a nation that is being led by politics, away from the values of life and humanity. Suatmadji was a member of the revolutionary Gerakan Seni Rupa Baru (New Art Movement) of the 1970s.

These five paintings from the collection of a prominent Indonesian statesman actually shape an important part of the development of Indonesia's art history.

Property of a Gentleman

(Lot # 061 - 065)

We present paintings that have been sourced from the collection of a relative of the painter and Governor of Jakarta, Henk Ngantung.

In the collection there are paintings by Yoshioka (lot #062) and Yamamoto (lot #063), two Japanese artists who were active at the Keimin Bunka Shidoso, the cultural agency during the Japanese Occupation of Indonesia from 1942-1945. Yoshioka's painting of flowers and Yamamoto's Landscape show expressive qualities that may have influenced Indonesian artists at the time. Unfortunately no further information about the artists are available.

Two paintings by Henk Ngantung are also among the pieces in the collection. Kapuas Kalimantan (lot #064) dates from 1951, while the painting of a duck herder (lot #065), although unsigned and undated, also dates from the 1950s. Another Ngantung painting, not part of this collection, is also offered in this sale (lot #066) and dates earlier, from 1947.

Also in this collection a curious, unsigned painting of a woman with headdress, most likely Balinese. The style of the painting is reminiscent of a couple of artists who was active in the 1950-60s in Bali, however the artist responsible for this work remains uncertain.

Property of a Lady, Jakarta

(Lots # 087 - 090)

In this auction we feature a collection of artworks from the collection of a Lady living in Jakarta. The collection includes a early painting by Sapto Hoedoyo (lot #087) dated 1946, depicting painting equipment probably which he used during the period of the Indonesian Revolutionary War (1945-49). There is a magnificent sculpture of a nude entitled Dhenok by an artist whom we unfortunately have not been able to identify (lot #088) and three wayang beber (lots #010-012). Two artworks by Gregorius Sidharta Soegiyo: and a Cubistic painting of a figure or figures dating from 1960 (lot #089), and an undated, early forged steel Crucifix (lot #090), are certainly the main highlights of this collection and this auction.

Sidharta's Distinct Abstraction

Born in Yogyakarta, in 1932, Gregorius Sidharta Soegiyo, is clearly a unique master of Indonesian Modern Art. He started his artistic journey when he joined the People's Painters Studio in 1947, painting under the tutelage of Hendra Gunawan and Trubus Soedarsono. When the Indonesian Fine Art Academy (ASRI) was opened in Yogyakarta in 1950, he immediately enrolled. There, along with other students, he founded the Young Indonesian Painters group. He continued his art education at the van Eyck Academie in Maastricht, The Netherlands from 1953-6, apparently with the assistance of the Catholic mission.

Upon his return to Indonesia, from 1958 to 1964 he taught at ASRI's sculpture studio. However, in 1965 he moved to Bandung. Along with But Muchtar and Rita Widagdo, he set up the Bandung Institute of Technology's sculpture studio.

Having been born, raised, studied and taught in Yogyakarta, and later having taught and worked in Bandung, Sidharta transverses both Yogya and Bandung schools. Most of his metal sculptures show the heavy influence of the Bandung school, which seems close to Western modernism. On the other hand, his wood sculptures show the influence of Yogyakarta's Decorativism which is close to Indonesian crafts.

While his shift from painting to sculpture seems to have happened following his studies in The Netherlands, he continued to paint in the 1960s. His paintings show the influence of Cubism, like the other Bandung artists. However, Sidharta's Cubism is distinct from his colleagues who studied painting in Bandung. As he did not study under Ries Mulder, his Cubism seems considerably freer than Mochtar Apin's and But Muchtar's approach of Analytical Cubism, and hence also more difficult to decipher.

ABSTRACT FIGURES (Lot # 089)

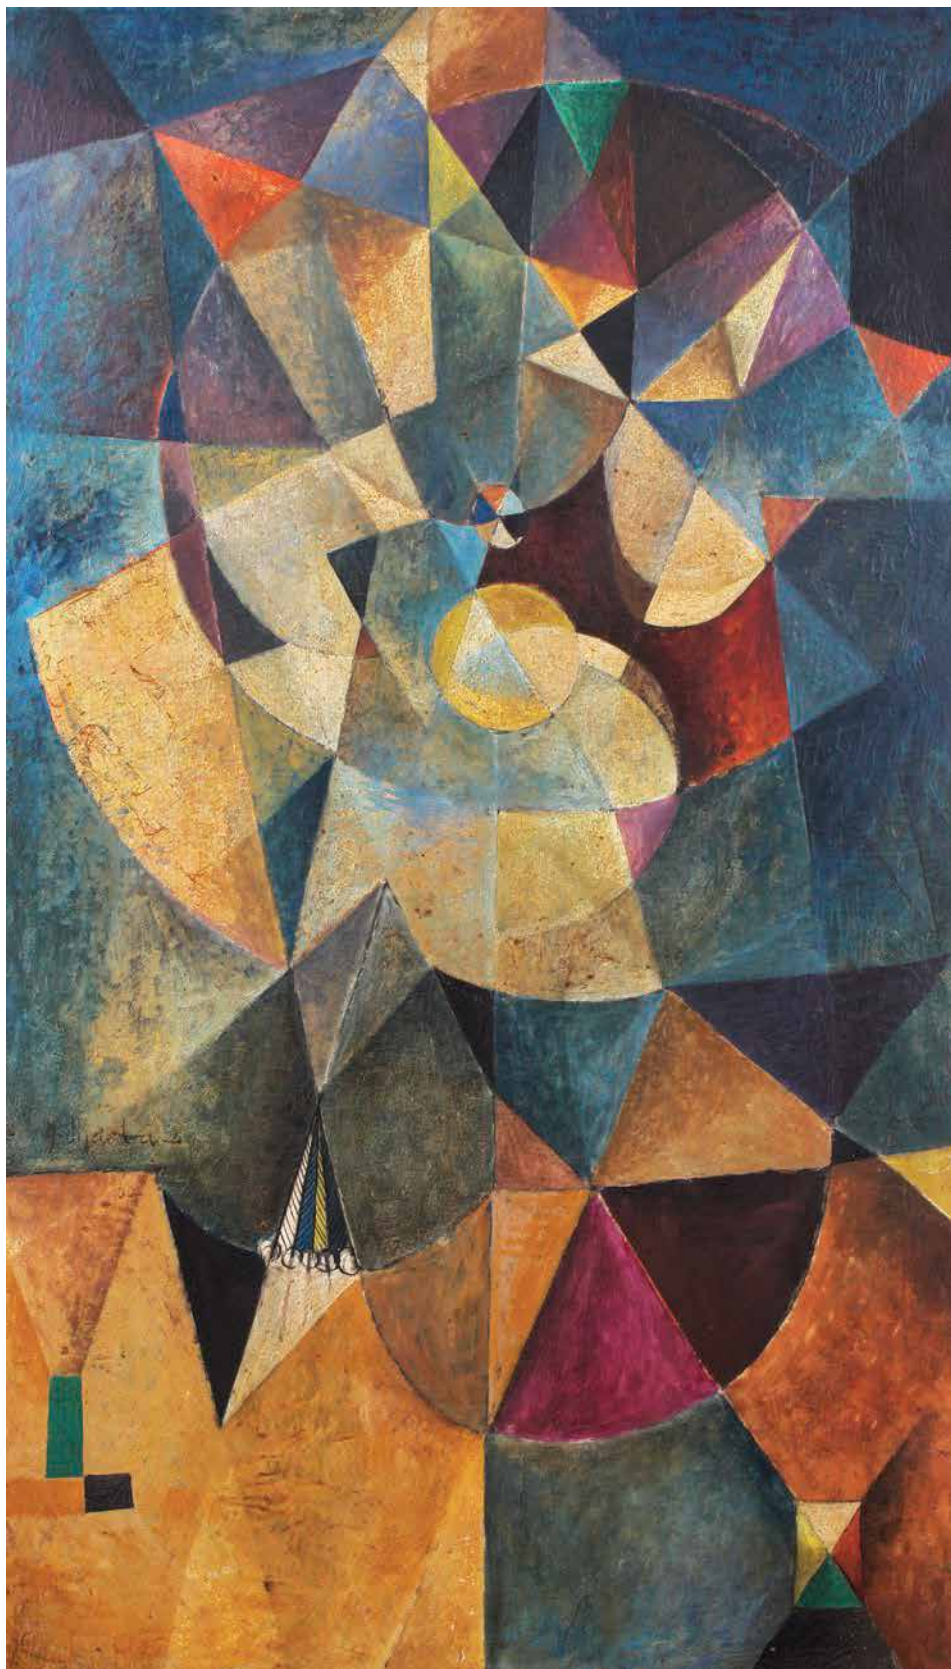

Some see the painting as a depiction of three figures: a tall man in the background, a bowing female figure in front of him and a small child in the middle of the composition, and consider that it is a depiction of Joseph, Mary and Jesus. However, the absence of any haloes surrounding the figures might signify that the painting is actually not at all a depiction of a religious theme. Be that as it may, the presence of at least one figure in the painting seems definite.

CRUCIFIX

Lot # 90

Sidharta's Crucifix featured in this auction, is quite distinct from the artist's other crucifixes. Compared to the three other crucifixes that are made of bronze and date from 1970, this particular crucifix seems to be done using a much stronger linear quality. However, close inspection would reveal that this crucifix is no less expressive than the others. Made out of steel, the crucifix has been made using a technique of forging, which may contribute to the difference in feel. This crucifix also seems to indicate influences of Cubism, suggesting that it is a piece that dates earlier than the other three crucifixes.

Photographs of 3 other crucifixes by G. Sidharta from the publication G. Sidharta: Di Tengah Seni Rupa Indonesia (IVAA Library collection)

Basoeki Abdullah

from The Property of Gentleman

(Lots # 139 & 140)

This year marks the centennial of the birth of Indonesian realist Basoeki Abdullah (Solo, C. Java, 2015 -Jakarta 1993). As evidenced by the number of his works are present in his album of art collections, Basoeki Abdullah was clearly President Sukarno's favorite painter. While the President banned Western style Indonesian music, which he labeled "musik ngak-ngik-ngok" and even went as far as imprisoning them musicians, Basoeki's renditions of beauty (landscapes and women) done in style of painting, instead, seemed to enchant him.

Here we present two paintings by Basoeki Abdullah, that have come from a collection which was initially started in the 1950s, not long after the recognition of Indonesia as a sovereign nation. During that time, it seemed common for the master to employ different stylistic approaches when painting different genres. The painting of water buffaloes in a natural landscape (lot #139) was painted using a looser, rather impressionistic brushwork. Meanwhile, the painting of a woman in the nude with child (lot #140) is painted more meticulously and delicately and set in scene constructed through his imagination. Here the nudity is clearly far from any tendency toward pornography; instead it presents certain innocence and beauty that is naïve and yet almost divine in appearance.

Affandi's Sitor Situmorang

from The Property of a Gentleman

(Lot # 169)

This unique portrait of Indonesian literary figure Sitor Situmorang by the maestro Affandi originates from a limited art collection of a gentleman living in South Jakarta. While he did not collect many works of art, he had paintings from important artists such as Mochtar Apin, Affandi, Henk Ngantung and even an early painting by Dede Eri Supria. Henk Ngantung's Di Bangku Sekolah (lot #066 in this auction) also comes from this collection.

The collector was quite a good friend of Mochtar Apin as well as Sitor Situmorang. He had always wanted to have a painting by Affandi in his collection. However, Affandi's paintings were sold at prices he was not yet able to afford at the time. Therefore, he immediately jumped at the opportunity to acquire this portrait of his friend. Certainly portraits were considerably lower in price than other more popular paintings by the maestro.

Following the passing of Sitor Situmorang, the collector thought it was also time to part with the painting, so as to give an opportunity for other young collectors to be able to purchase a painting by Affandi at a price that is within reach of their budget. Indeed, as an auction house one of our functions is to find art works that have been in a collection for often long, long periods of time, brandnew homes where they can continue to be enjoyed.

Hendra Gunawan's Tukang Es Puter

Together with Affandi and Sudjojono, Hendra Gunawan has always been considered as the most important Indonesian modern masters. In fact, not only does he paint the lives of the common people of Indonesia, the way he creates forms, his brushstrokes, palette and compositions are unlike any other (especially Western) painter and therefore often considered to be the most authentically Indonesian artist. In conjunction with the 70th anniversary of the Indonesian Independence this year, President Joko Widodo with the Paramadharma cultural medal of honor.

We are very proud to feature in our Fine Art Auction, Hendra Gunawan's Tukang Es Puter, a painting depicting a scene surround the activities of a crank ice cream vendor. In the hot, tropical villages in Indonesia, while ice cream is certainly an item of luxury, some villagers make ice cream using a simple hand crank ice cream maker that uses crushed ice, raw milk and rock salt (similar to the kind that is used to make old fashioned home-made ice cream in the Western world). They sell the product by carrying a couple of large wooden pails of ice cream balanced on a large wooden or bamboo stick, which they place on their shoulders, around the villages.

In this particular scene, the painter slightly diverts our attention away from the vendor, to take note of the kneeling woman in the foreground. Just as the woman appears trying to enjoy a spoon of the es puter ice cream she just purchased, her duties as a mother call. Her toddler seems still unable to yet end his habit of breast-feeding, although he is no longer a small baby. Meanwhile, her little girl seems to also attempting to attract her attention by hugging her from behind. Her attempt to attain a simple pleasure is often held back by her duties and obligations. Such is the complex life of common Indonesian women, as Hendra Gunawan has observed.

Hendra Gunawan's paintings usually are depictions the common people and their lives. They are often not merely idyllic pictorial renditions but often they are indeed insightful yet subtle observations that explore their humanity, their struggle of making ends meet, their attempts to attain their simple pleasures, and the challenges they often face. The insightful observations, as can be seen in this painting, distinguish the masterpieces from the rest.
