MESSAGE FROM THE CEO OF SIDHARTA AUCTIONEER

Dear Art Lovers & Collectors,

Welcome to Sidharta Auctioneer's Artfordable Auction at Jakarta Art Hub.

This season, we are pleased to present 119 lots of modern and contemporary Indonesian art, bringing together a wide range of artistic approaches and perspectives. The collection encompasses a broad range of artistic approaches, from figurative and landscape works to abstraction and genre painting, spanning multiple generations of artists.

Zabusa, Ernanta Item, Tresna Suryawan, Momon, Joe Armaya, I Wayan Pengsong, Purbo, Gudod Sutejo, Wenas Heriyanto, Koempoel Sujatno, Miro, Royatna, Badrus, Sudjono Abdullah, Bonny Setiawan, Untung Wahono, Gunawan Hanjaya, Nana Banna, Gung Man, Made Kenak Dwi Adnyana, Nyoman Budiarta, Pande Gde Supada, I Wayan Sunadi, I Made Supena, Tulus Warsito, Riduan, Bob Sick, D.J. Rachmansjah, and Agus Budiyanto.

Beyond paintings, the catalogue also presents a selection of objects and collectibles spanning a range of historical and cultural traditions. Including a 19th century Chinese Peranakan carved gilt wooden sideboard, a 20th century Chinese circular decorative floor screen, sets of carved rosewood and teak vintage Indonesian furniture, a 19th century antique lacquered wood document box with brass mounts, and more.

Whether you are building a collection or making your first acquisition, we encourage you to take the time to explore the works featured in this auction. We hope the collection offers both familiar favorites and new discoveries.

Join us for the public live and online auction on Saturday, August 22nd, 2026, and visit our preview exhibition at our gallery.

Happy bidding!

Auction Notification

SIDHartA Auctioneer is an officially registered auction house under the supervision of Indonesia's Direktorat Jenderal Kekayaan Negara. An Auction Registrar, Chitra Mukhsin, is present to ensure the auction runs properly, reports are submitted to the government, and payments from winning bidders are completed on time.

This is a Continental Style auction, where bidders compete until the highest bid is reached. A 22% buyer's premium is added to the hammer price and paid by the winning bidder.

Lots are presented in numerical order. Auctions typically move at a rate of 50 lots per hour, so for example, 119 lots should take about 2 hours and 23 minutes.

Each lot includes an estimate, which reflects the current market value. Bids within that range may win the lot, though final prices can be lower (at reserve price) or higher depending on demand.

Most lots have a reserve price, the minimum at which the seller agrees to sell. Until this reserve is met, the auctioneer may place bids on the seller's behalf ("with me"). A lot is considered sold only after the reserve is met and the auctioneer strikes the hammer.

We accept Written, Phone, and Online Bids. Phone operators will bid on behalf of remote bidders. Absentee (written) bids are pre-registered and executed by the auctioneer up to the specified limit. Online bids are processed automatically. Floor bidders compete with all of these.

All lots are sold as is. Condition reports are available upon request. Any corrections to catalog descriptions will be posted in Sale Room Notices.

We do not issue certificates unless explicitly stated in the catalog.

Invoices, including the 22% buyer's premium added to the hammer price, will be issued by Tuesday or Wednesday. Please be informed that there is a buyer's premium of 22% on top of the hammer price applied to the winning bidder. Payment is due within three days via bank transfer or credit card. Lots may be picked up with proof of payment or delivered at an additional cost.

Thank you and happy bidding!

Amrus Natalsya presents a lively depiction of a Chinatown market in the late morning, populated by vendors, shoppers, street traders, and horse-drawn carts moving through the bustling streets. The work exemplifies Natalsya's distinctive wood-painting technique, in which an intricately carved wooden surface is transformed into a detailed relief scene through the application of vivid colors. The layered carving gives depth to the architecture, figures, trees, and market activity, while the bright palette brings energy and movement to the piece. The surrounding carved panels further extend the scene, incorporating smaller vignettes of daily life and reinforcing the sense of an interconnected community.

SAKSI IKATAN BATIN BY SEKARTADJI SUPANTOI

Lot #841

“Saksi Ikatan Batin” by Sekartadji Supanto depicts two watchtowers of the Great Wall emerging from a vast and turbulent landscape of clouds.

The monumental structures are connected by loose strands of red rope that stretch across the distance, creating a striking contrast between the enduring strength of the wall and the delicate bonds that hold it together. Above, the full moon emerges through the heavy clouds, a looming and watchful presence in the scene. The dramatic interplay of dark, muted tones and the vivid red of the ropes emphasizes the themes of connection, distance, and resilience, while the rolling clouds represent a threat to those ideas.

NI TOEWI BY NORIAKI KOBAYASHI FOR CUPINARI

This finely crafted porcelain figure depicts Ni Toewi, a traditional Balinese female figure, presented with an elegant combination of sculptural detail and decorative ornamentation. The figure stands gracefully on a black wooden base, holding a small floral vessel in one hand, while her elaborate head-dress and finely modeled facial features emphasize her refined appearance. Platinum-colored accents adorn the bodice, skirt, sleeves, headdress, and base of the garment, forming intricate floral and scrolling motifs that contrast beautifully with the white porcelain. The figure's elongated proportions, delicate posture, and carefully rendered costume evoke the elegance of Balinese traditional dress while demonstrating the precision of porcelain craftsmanship. Designed by Noriaki Kobayashi for Cupinari, the work brings together Japanese porcelain artistry and Balinese cultural imagery, resulting in a decorative object that emphasizes both cultural character and meticulous attention to detail.

BY JEIHAN SUKMANTORO

Lot #851 & 852

Jeihan Sukmanto explores the female figure through the distinctive approach to human portrait that became central to his practice. Sang Penari (2009) depicts a solitary female dancer in a poised, expressive stance, her elongated body painted in sweeping strokes of gold, green, and blue against a deep, atmospheric background. Her characteristic slanted, hollow eyes and lowered gaze give the figure an enigmatic presence, while the flowing movement of her arms and costume suggests the grace of dance. In Nora (2006), Jeihan presents a similarly elongated female figure, positioned against a sharply divided background of deep blue and vibrant yellow. Her pale body and dark hair create a striking contrast, while her tilted head, closed eyes, and restrained gesture convey a sense of pause and unease. Both of the portraits exemplify Jeihan's enduring fascination with the female form, using elongated proportions, simplified features, and his signature hollow-eyed gaze to create figures that appear dreamlike.

PENARI COKEK & BECAK RAHAYU

BY OTTO DJAYA

Lot #854 & 855

In these two works, Otto Djaya presents lively scenes of everyday Indonesian life through his characteristic combination of expressive figures and simplified forms through his iconic almost child-like style. In Penari Cokek (1996), a group of dancers and musicians gather beneath a moonlit sky, with the central female dancer extending her arms as she performs alongside a male companion. The surrounding musicians and rhythmic movement of the figures expresses a festive atmosphere. In Becak Rahayu (1999), Djaya turns his attention to a more intimate street scene, depicting a becak carrying a seated passenger as its driver cycles them through a lush village landscape. Houses, trees, and another passing figure establish a distinctly rural setting, rendered in warm and cheerful tones. Together, the paintings demonstrate Djaya's enduring interest in Indonesian customs and daily life, capturing moments of community, movement, and cultural character through a distinctly accessible and colorful visual language.

TEMPLE IN BAL & VIEW OF RICE FIELDS

BY GUNG MAN

Lot #857 & 858

Gung Man captures the distinctive character of the Balinese landscape through vibrant color, and expressive brushwork. Temple in Bali (2022), a traditional Balinese temple sits within a colorful complex surrounded by large trees, hills, and the distant mountains. The composition is animated by his iconic patterned strokes while two simplified figures at the center add a human presence to the scene. In View of Rice Fields (2023), Gung Man shifts his focus toward the expansive agricultural landscape, with a large tree framing the foreground and layers of rice fields extending toward the mountains. Small farmers working among the fields and a figure guiding a white cow introduce the same human presence in many of his works, while the dominant blues and greens emphasize the openness and vitality of the countryside.

WORK HOURS BY EDI BONETSKI

Lot #868

Edi Bonetski's composition is built from bold blocks of color, frantic marks, and fragmented forms. Dominated by vivid reds, oranges, and yellows, the canvas is punctuated by areas of green and white, creating a dynamic contrast against the empty background. Abstracted architectural and figurative elements appear throughout the composition, while loose outlines, overlapping shapes, and handwritten marks give the work an immediate, spontaneous quality. At the center, the words "Work" "Hous" "Hours" and "Home" are incorporated directly into the painted surface, reinforcing the relationship between everyday life, labor, and the relationship (or lackthereof) between them. The work reflects Bonetski's expressive approach to contemporary painting, combining text, abstraction, and figurative suggestion to support a lively and personal visual thesis.

FRAGILE TO FRAGILE BY RUDI ST. DARMA

Lot #874

Fragile to Fragile presents a delicate landscape of branching forms and soft, cloud-like shapes. Against a warm terracotta background, dark branches spread across the canvas in an intricate network, creating the main component of this composition's structure. Clusters of pale pink forms rest upon the branches, their soft, textured surfaces contrasting with the sharper lines of the branches. White gestural marks and dripping paint appear across several of these forms, giving this piece a sense of interconnectedness and gravity. The limited palette of earthy red, dark brown, and pale pink creates a unified and contemplative atmosphere, while the organic forms remain deliberately ambiguous, suspended between blossoms, clouds, and abstract shapes. The work demonstrates St. Darma's ability to combine expressive mark-making with simplified natural imagery, toeing the line between a calm, contemplative expression and something darker with a sharper edge.

A young woman gently holds a black cat against a warm, muted background. The simplified palette gives the composition an intimate character, while the woman's calm expression and protective gesture toward the cat display the tenderness of companionship. The pale moon-like circle in the background complements the earthy tones of the painting. Ganar's straightforward treatment of the figure and carefully observed details, particularly in the woman's face, hair, and hands, emphasize the simplicity of its message, the bond between the woman and her cat.

KE LANGIT TUJUH BY FAIZIN

Lot #882

“Ke Langit Tujuh” is a surreal and unsettling scene in which a green, humanoid figure appears to be forcefully pulled into a dreamlike space. A smaller figure of a whirling helicopter in the background responsible for the movement and disorientation. The exaggerated anatomy, unusual proportions, and distorted expressions give the composition a fantastical quality, while the predominantly dark green and black palette creates an atmosphere of mystery and unease. Elements present in the bedroom are the grounding factors in this nightmarish scene, blurring the boundary between reality and an imagined world. Through this surreal imagery, Faizin creates a visually dramatic exploration of addiction, fantasy, and the journey toward the “seven skies” suggested by the title.

HARVEST IN MY BRAIN VILLAGE

BY BOB SICK YUDHITA AGUNG

Lot #884

In Harvest in My Brain Village, Bob Sick Yudhita Agung presents a whimsical and imaginative landscape populated by boats, water, and an elongated partially human-like figure. A deep blue sea occupies the left side of the composition, spilling over the top and into the right corner, filled with simply rendered boats and white lines suggesting waves, while the semi-anthropomorphic figure stands against the bright yellow-orange ground. Its exaggerated proportions, expressive eyes, and elongated limbs give the scene a surreal character. Bold outlines and flat areas of saturated blue, yellow, and red reinforce the work's graphic quality. Agung's distinctive use of naïve-inspired imagery, vivid color, and unconventional figures construct an imaginative visual language filled with self-reflective humor and personal symbolism.

TIGA PENARI BY S. DWI SETYO "ACONG"

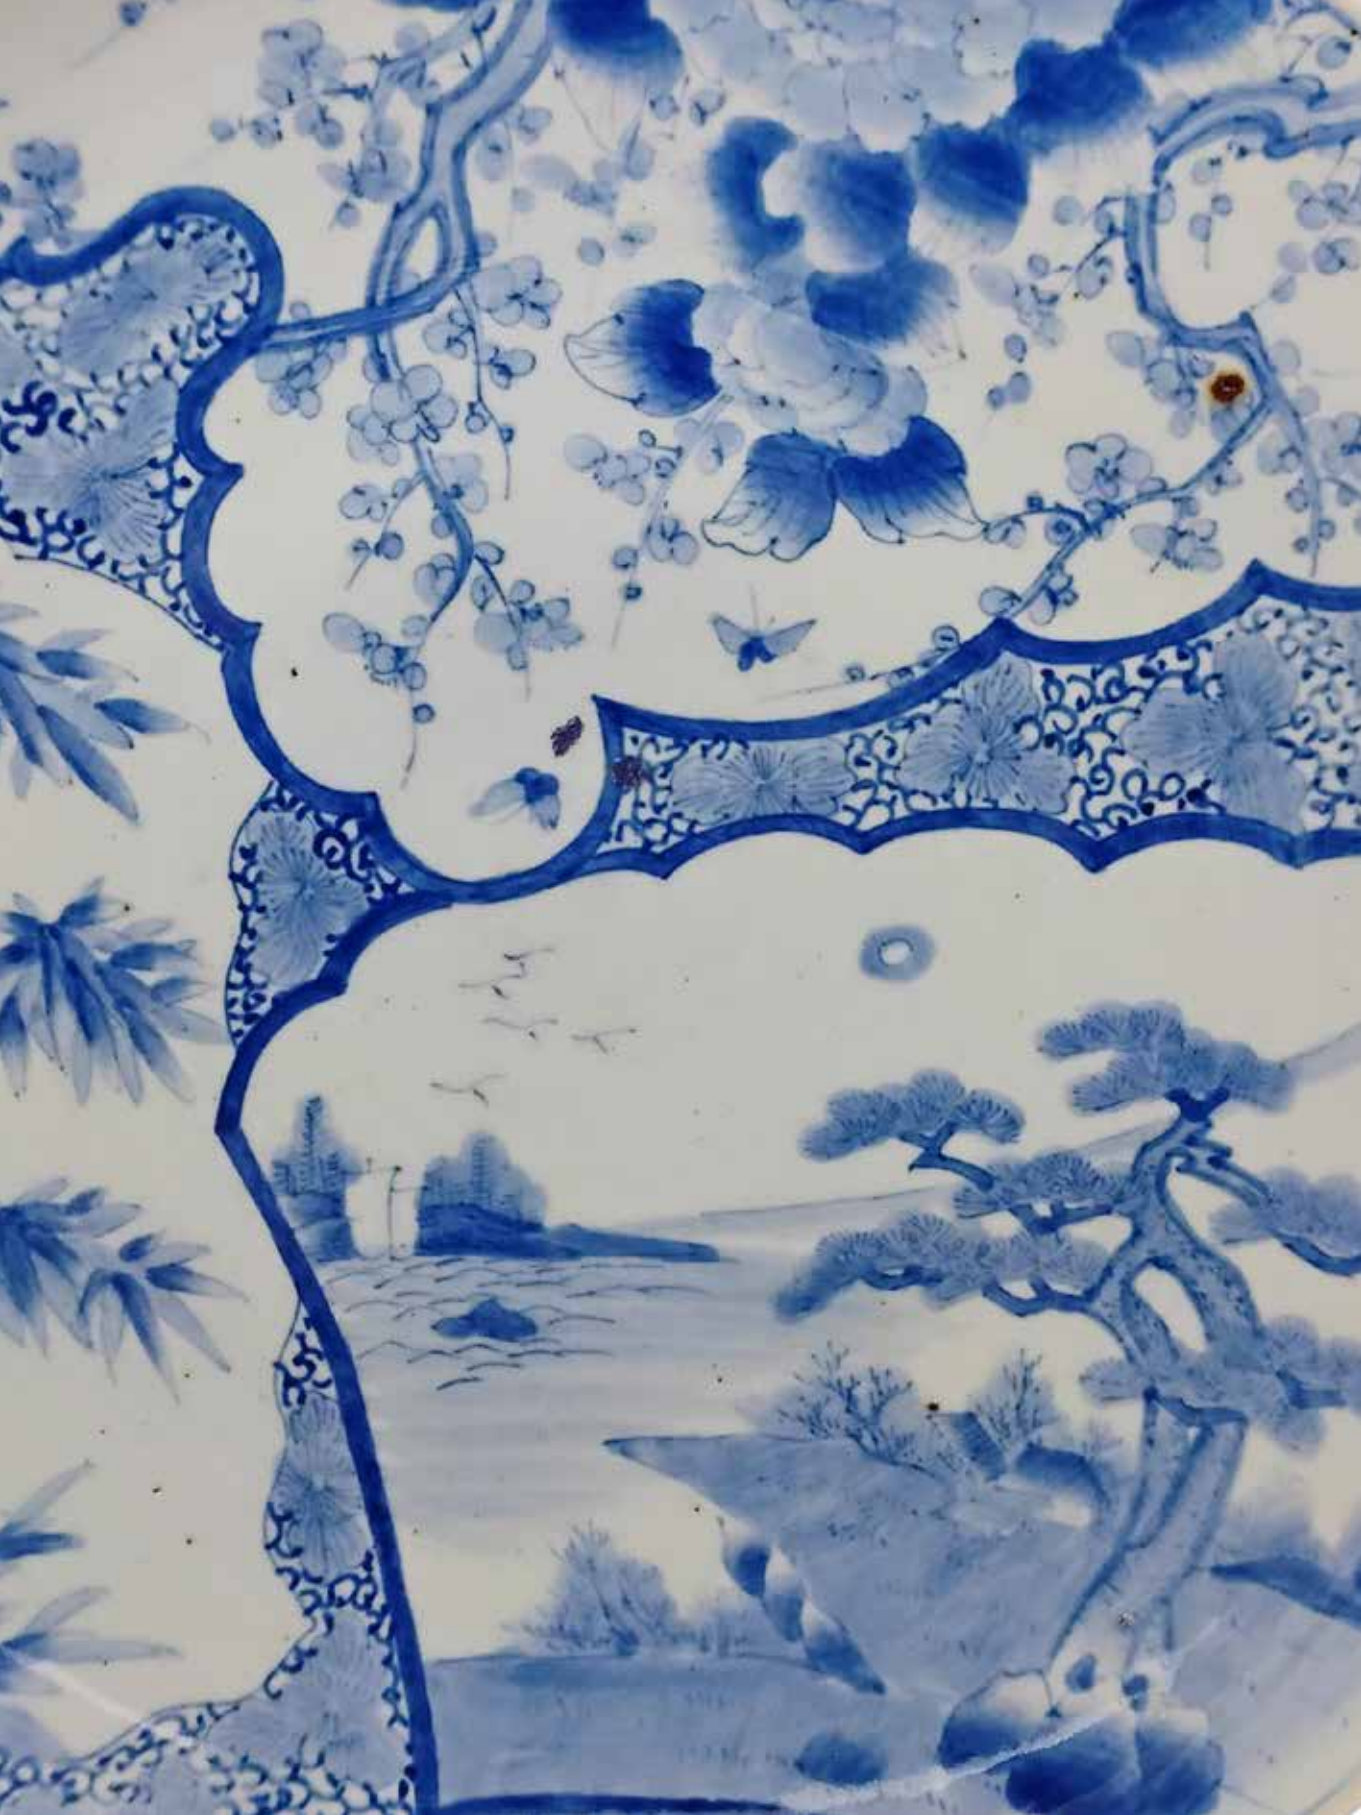

Lot #885

In Tiga Penari, S. Dwi Setyo "Acong" presents three human figures whose expressive forms emerge from a richly layered field of translucent circles and overlapping colors. The figures occupy the lower portion of the composition, their dark, gestural bodies contrasting with the soft pastel tones that surround them. Across the canvas, clusters of blue, violet, yellow, orange, and green circles overlap in a cluster, partially obscuring the figures and giving the scene an almost dreamlike quality. The arrangement suggests movement without relying on conventional representation, allowing the dancers to appear simultaneously grounded, interactive, and affected by their environment. Painted in 2008, the work demonstrates Acong's distinctive approach to combining figurative imagery with abstract elements, using color, layering, and gesture to create an atmospheric interpretation of the human form.
